A Grit Undertakes to Tell What His Party Should Do.

Thinks the Good Time Is Soon Coming When Reforms Will Be

From Saturday's Daily. Dawson, Y. T., March 30, 1900. To the Editor of the Daily Klondike

Dear Sir: I have noticed frequently that you publish in the columns of your paper letters which are written by residents of this city, affecting matters of public concern. If you please, I shall avail myself of this privilege; for wish to write in reference to certain things which should interest a considerable portion of the Canadian residents

It may be well to state, as a commencement, that I am a Liberal in politics, and it is to persons of such affiliations that I desire to address myself. Everyone who is at all conversant with the governmental affeirs of this terri-tory, is aware that its development has been retarded by unwise legislation; and those who have consideration for the welfare of the country, earnestly hope that the conditions which have resulted by reason of the enforcement of these ill-advised laws will be speedily remedied. It is of no avail now to attempt to fix the responsibility for the enactment of oppressive regulations on any particular person or party. In my opinion the government at Ottawa has been induced to pass such legislation as prevails here, by the representations of persons whom it considered trustworthy; and, likewise, I believe that those gentlemen in whom it reposed confidence, exerted their honest efforts, and offered what they considered to be proper and good advice. I contend that the evils of which we now complain are not the result of dishonest motives; but may be attributed to the suggestions of men who were not accustomed to deal with such resources as this country produces. The fact is evident that as rapidly as the government at Ottawa discovered the incompetency of its advisers the latter were replaced by more desirable men. At the present time the local officials are doing as well as can be expected of them, in view of the laws which circumscribe their conduct. The orders which have been issued recently from Ottawa clearly indicate that the federal government is anxious and willing to

Gold Commissioner's Court.

In the case of George Tyler, plaintiff, vs. W. E. Thompson, defendant, an appeal has been taken by the defendant to the minister of the interior from the decision, which was recently rendered in the action by Comissioner Senkler. The suit involved the title to creek claim No. 56a above discovery on Sulphur creek; and the judgment of the local court was in favor of the plaintiff.

A notice of appeal has also been filled in the case of Peter Werbus and Michael Bede, plaintiffs, vs. J. Vincent, defendant, which action involved the hillside some matters of business elaim, right limit, opposite 78 below on Bonanza. The appellants are the plaintiffs against whom judgment was rendered by Commissioner Senkler.

The action of Eckardt, Bowen, Belcher, and Meekrson, plaintiffs, vs. Ernest de Champain and Frank D. Demers, defendants, was tried yesterday. The suit involves the title to creek claim No. 10 above the mouth of Gold Bottom. This morning the following He reports the trail to be in bad condilecision was rendered in the case:

"From the evidence adduced in the case I must find that the representation the city. work was done on this claim for the year commencing December 16th, 1898, to December 16th, 1899. The claim would not, therefore, be open for relocation upon the 31st of October, 1899. I must therefore, hold that the defendants' location is invalid and should be cancelled. At the same time, I .consider that the plaintiffs are at fault innot seeing that some notice was placed on file to show that the claim had been represented. It was owing to this neglect that the defendants received grants on the steamboat St. Michaels last for the property. Therefore, before resummer, arrived from Skagway this lect that the detendants received grants newals are issued to the owners, under morning. the original location, they must pay to the defendants the sum of $30 they paid for the grants issued to them." Commissioner Senkler also decided the case of Hovet et al. vs. Corsa et al., which involves the title to creek claim No. 69 below on Hunker. The text of the decision is as follows:

"The plaintiffs relocated respectively the upper and lower halves of the above claim on November 28th; 1899. It appears from the evidence that the claim was recorded by the original locator on per day. November 28th, 1899. It appears from the evidence that the claim was recorded by the original locator on November 1st, 1897. The claim was first renewed on April 4th, 1899, upon an affidavit filed by one Pelletier.
