SUMMER CUSHIONS.

COOL AND SMART PILLOWS FOR HOT WEATHER COMFORT.

The Floor Cushion, or "Humpty," as it is sometimes called, a New Feature of Furnishing-Lingerie Effects Especially Dainty.

The newest idea in summer sofa cushions is to have one or two of heart shape resting on top of the ordinary square pillows. The cushion is of large size, somewhat solidly stuffed and from six to eight inches thick. For the center the heart shape is cut out in a flat piece of silk, backed, if soft, with coarse linen or some stiffer material and set into a wide gauging made to lie flat. As in the example shown in the sketch, the center is embroidered. The model which suggested the drawing was rose colored taffeta silk, with an applique design in oyster white terry velvet and silk, laid down with a fine cream silk cord and touched here and there with embroidery in soft green. The square pillow on which it rests was of green, the sofa being covered in a shadow tissue, in which rose and green were the principal tints. In perfectly plain corded silk, gullish of adornment, the heart cushion makes an excellent accessory to the sofa furniture.

A NEW STYLE OF CUSHION.

niture, and one lately met with in deep purple, the color of a parma violet, was a telling detail in a scheme of mauves and amber. Another charming way of carrying it out is in broderie anglaise on ivory lawn, lined with one of the colors dominant in the room, but in this case the gauging would have to be dispensed with in favor of a flat shaped border of the openwork.

The floor cushion, or "humpty," as it is sometimes called, has won great favor for itself, which is not surprising, as it has distinct charms of its own, particularly as the fireside seat which the second sketch suggests.

A FLOOR CUSHION.

Well stuffed with a mixture of horse-hair and down (vegetable down will serve the purpose where economy is an object) it is quite easy to make, with an under cover of unbleached linen, over which two large silk handkerchiefs are tied with "ear" corners and a finish of narrow cord at the junctions of the edges all round. The good old bandanna makes an excellent cover for a "humpty" intended for a library or sitting room, while in delicate china silk or shadow tissue it is dainty enough for the most delicately furnished drawing room. In its smallest size

OF WHITE LINEN, CLUNT AND EYELET EMBROIDERY.

It is to a great degree responsible for the revival of the old fashioned foot-stool, and very pretty for this purpose in a room with loose covers of flowered chintz is a set of miniature floor cushions covered in plain china silk, turquoise blue, rose or green, according to the scheme of color in the surroundings.

Amusement For a Sick Child.

A pretty idea which was adopted by a mother whose child was recovering from a long illness was to fill a bag with little presents contributed by different friends up to the number of about twenty. Every morning the bag was brought to the little convalescent's bedside, and, without looking, he was allowed to dip his hand in and take out one of the treasures contained in it. The delight of his daily surprise and the pleasure of playing with each in turn kept the small boy amused by the hour.
