An Old Time Punishment

An Interesting Story By F. E. C. Robbins, Submitted To The Planet Juniors

No. 19

we boys will have lots of fun getting them.

We are going to do some of our work and sent it in to the fair this week.

The state — was adjudged guilty — one for the boys and one for the girls — for an essay on "How I spent my vacation." This time we are going to get the children to choose the words which they think should have the prize, and this is how we will do it:

1. In the essay you may write a description of a trip you took or an excursion or picnic you were at, anything or something you did at home, in your holidays.

2. No essay of less than one thousand words will be considered.

3. All essays to have the name and age of the writer, and the post office address.

All essays for competition are to be addressed "Prize Competition, Editor, Planet Junior, Chatham, Ontario," and must reach us on or before Monday, October 15th. We will choose the twelve best and publish them, two each week. These will be numbered and the ages of writers will be given, as we cannot expect as much from the older pupils as from the younger ones.

Those who compete for the prizes will receive a small conjuncture, and the man's name above.

We are sorry to hear that Freda Ridd, of Dresden, is ill with typhoid fever. Freda was one of our most regular contributors to the paper, and we hope she will recover soon.

The essays for the Prize Competition are commanding to come in all ready. The competition will not close until Oct. 16th, and we hope we may have a great number of them.

What has happened to our little Central Rev. Mr. Langford to give an additional touch to the paper?

School friends for weeks last week we thought you had all been taken up with the wonders of the world.

Irishman said, "The bullets are getting too interesting; I must leave long until we hear from her again."

The editor of the Planet Junior — last night we had an anniversary concert. The minister invited Mr. Langford to give an additional touch to the paper?
