

LATEST STYLE FLOUR! AMERICAN STRAW HATS!

C. H. BORDEN'S, WOLFVILLE, Shoe, Hat, Furnishing and Clothing Store.

DR. WM. A. PAYZANT, DENTIST.

THE ACADIAN.

Local and Provincial.

Summer tourists are already beginning to visit our beautiful town.

Master Temple Piers, of this town, found a number of ripe strawberries this week.

The weather so far has been exceedingly favorable for the grass, and an abundant crop of hay is promised.

To Let.—The shop lately occupied by Brown & Munro. Apply to C. A. PATRIQUIN.

Mr. J. W. Beckwith is moving this week to the Royal Hotel, which he has leased and has had thoroughly renovated.

The new speedway is a favorite resort of the horsemen of this locality, and during the evening presents a lively appearance.

There will be an unusually large number of candidates at the provincial examination for teachers next month at Kentville, 149 applications being in.

Indications now point to a large crop of fruit. The apple trees are fairly covered with blossoms and many old fruit growers say they never saw better prospects of a big crop.

The choicest Ice Cream always on hand at the New York Oyster House.

Rev. Mr. Moss, of Manitoba, is visiting Rev. D. J. Fraser. The rev. gentlemen were class mates at McGill. Rev. Mr. Moss conducted the services in St. Andrew's church on Wednesday evening.

The races at Kentville on Thursday afternoon of last week were quite successful, notwithstanding the rain. Two of the contests were successfully completed, while the three-mile race was postponed and will be trotted on July 2d.

Fresh P. E. Island Oysters at the New York Oyster Saloon.

Dr. T. J. Cummings, specialist in diseases of the hair and scalp, was in town on Wednesday, and will be here again on Monday next. He claims he can cure most cases of baldness, and has a great number of testimonials from leading business men of Nova Scotia.

The notice of the marriage of our popular photographer, Mr. W. W. Robson, appears in another column. The happy event took place at Windsor on Wednesday. Mr. Robson's many friends in Wolfville wish him and his fair bride a happy and prosperous journey through life.

A "White Mountain" hammock almost new, for sale at less than half price. Enquire for ACADIAN office.

Prof. C. A. McDonald has resigned the position of principal of the Manual Training Hall, and will pursue his studies at Cornell University. To Prof. McDonald much of the credit must be given of making the school the success it has been in these two first years of its history.

During his residence in Wolfville he has made many warm friends, who will be sorry to learn that he will not return next year.

The factory of the Acadia Dairy Co. is now about completed. The machinery on the way from Boston and is expected shortly. Mr. F. M. Logan, of Annapolis, Cum. county, is to be manager and he is said to be exceptionally well qualified for the position. He is now in Wolfville and will superintend the putting up of the machinery. The company expect to be in a position to begin operations shortly.

Fluk Jubilee Singers Coming.

The people of Wolfville and vicinity will be glad to learn that we are to have another opportunity of hearing the Fluk Jubilee Singers. They have been engaged by the Wolfville Band, and will give one of their popular concerts in College hall on the evening of the 27th inst. Comment on these sweet singers, who have delighted Wolfville audiences on two occasions, seems unnecessary. The following item, however, from the St. John Sun may not be out of place:

"Jubilee Singers performed to a full house last week, and gave one of their old time programmes in a most pleasing manner. Mrs. Porter Cole, one of the original band of Fluk Jubilee Singers who went off in 1871, led the music, and it was noticed that her voice, notwithstanding 23 years of constant practice, has not lost but gained in fullness and sweetness of tone. Her solo songs were worth the price of admission, and in it she showed a culture and execution rarely attained except by some of the modern prima donnas."

R. S. CROWE, Esq., Pleasant Street Truro, N. S., writes: "It is with pleasure I testify to the great merits of K. D. C. which is undoubtedly worthy of the name, 'The King of Cures.' I have been troubled for over a year with acidity and flatulency and heartburn, and now after using but three packages of K. D. C. I am completely free from these troubles. A cured man."

Free sample mailed to any address, K. D. C. Co., Ltd., New Glasgow, N. S., and 127 State Street, Boston, Mass.

In another place will be found the notice of the death of Mr Robert Cochran, which occurred at his present home at Kentville on Sunday. The deceased was for some years a resident of Wolfville, being in the employ of Mr L. W. Sleep, and had many friends among the young men of the town. He fell a victim to consumption at the early age of 22 years.

Wolfville, June 14th, 1894.

Hymeneal.

All the friends of Robert Schofield, Esq., of Black River, will be interested in reading the following account of his son's marriage at Winthrop, Conn., published in the Deep River New Era:

"The home of Mr and Mrs G. Miller was the scene of a very pretty ceremony on Tuesday, May 1st. The occasion was the marriage of their two youngest daughters, Miss Gertrude Miller marrying Mr Gilbert Kelsey, and Miss Hattie Miller marrying Mr Emerson A. Schofield. This double wedding brought together the relatives and friends from New York and elsewhere, forming a social and jolly company, who fully enjoyed the simple, but very pretty and impressive ceremony. The brides carried Jacqueminot roses, and were attired in pretty costumes, both becoming and modest, which showed much taste. The couples acted alternately, the one for the other, as best man and maid of honor. The room was prettily decorated, and the ceremony was performed beneath a double arch of evergreens by the Rev. W. B. Vassar. Congratulations and good wishes followed, such as only a home wedding can produce. Then came the wedding breakfast and justice was done to the excellent menu prepared. After the repast the whole company adjourned to the lawn where merry contests at croquet were indulged in until the time for the departure of the newly wedded couple, when amid showers of rice and good wishes they started on their first journey in married life. Accompanied by a party of friends they were driven to Saybrook junction where Mr and Mrs Schofield boarded a New York train en route for Nova Scotia, the former home of Mr Schofield, where they will spend their honeymoon and then return to Connecticut."
