'Tea for Three.'

On Saturday, April 12th, matinee and evening, Manager Mason will give to the theatre goers of Wolfville one performance only, what he considers to be the theatrical treat of the season, namely, the biggest comedy success of the present, 'New V. I. Season, 'Tea for Three,' and 'Rita Ryan' playing the principal parts, assisted by Norman Hackett, Hayden Stevenson, and others. Rita Ryan will be remembered for her splendid work in 'Out There' two years ago and in 'Tea for Three' we believe she has a role that will greatly increase her popularity. Norman Hackett has not played the Maritime provinces before but is a really popular in central Canada and the States.

'Tea for Three' was written by Roy Coper, a native whose 'Seven Chances,' 'It Pays to Advertise,' and 'Where Popple Bloom' have all been Broadway successes, and is presented by Selwyn & Co., producers of 'Twin Beds,' 'Pat and Warner,' 'Baby Mine' and 'Within the Law,' all tremendous money makers in past years. They have at present the big New York hit in addition to 'Tea for Three,' which has been running at the Maxine Hotel Theatre for the past six months. Jack Cowie, in the 'Crowded Hour,' and 'Tambora' is it.

It would not be fair to spoil the story of 'Tea for Three' by disclosing it to you who are to see it, but, briefly, it concerns a beautiful woman who has married and is happy with the man of her choice, but who cannot resist the temptation of the handsome bachelor lover of her girlhood.

The entertainment was brought to a close by the one act farce 'A Close Shave' which was very amusing. All the performers were well taken.

Boy Scout Entertainment

The Opera House was literally packed on Monday evening when the Wolfville troupe of the Boy Scout gave their eighth annual entertainment, and everyone present enjoyed the show very much. The program opened with a selection by the Scout band. There were several choruses by the scouts and all of them were well received. The exhibition of prepared training under the direction of Mr. R. A. Bishop was one of the best parts of the program.

The Grand Picnic was presented on the program by A. H. and Scoutmaster Watson who gave a most interesting and well-organized picnic on the grounds of the Opera House.

'CASE' TRACTORS

How many exposed gears and exposed chain drive automobiles could you sell in Kings county today? We venture to say, NONE, and there's a reason.

Why, then, should you consider a farm tractor with the same faulty construction, when the work to be done is so much more exacting than is expected from an automobile.

'CASE' encloses all gears in a bath of oil, and this is only one of the many splendid features of this machine that put it in the profit-making line.

See the 'CASE' and easily recognize for yourself other indispensable features possessed only by this machine.
