with one accord non-cutted the plain-tiff. Armstrong's charge was that Mr. Farrow hadforged an order upos Walter Macdonald, of Hamilton, for the amount of a lean which Armstrong was making. The plaintiff was warned by several lawyers whom he attempted to secure as connsel to drop his charge, but he per-sisted in what was certainly a most acandalous and malicious action. Mr. Farrow was called from Ottawa to answer the charge which he has been de-fending about six years, and has been considerably annoyed therewith. After the trial the plaintiff Arm strong was set upon by the crowd, pelted with rotten eggs and otherwise reated to expressions of the popular spinion of him.
