N.B.—Of the above amount $250 has been been sent off to maintain One Bed for one year for our wound-

The Patriotic Committee of Barr'd Island and Joe Batts Arm decided to use the balance, $31.84, for the following purpose, namely, to send a small parcel at Christmas to each of the Twenty Babies on the Stephano.

James L. Taylor, of Dobbs Ferry N. Y., first cabin passenger on the Red Cross liner, formerly a newspaper nan, stated that as the German submarine shelled the Stephano, through the evening, the American destroyers formed a ring about her "like a horse

Among the passengers on the Stephano were not less than 20 babies, ranging from a few weeks old to 3 and 4 years. On their mothers fell the severest nervous shock of the warning to leave the ship, conveyed by the German U-boat's commander in the form of shots across the Stephano's bow, of the hurried putting on of life belts, of the descent rom the ship's rails by ladder to the in the small boats, to the protecting side of a United States destroyer.

One, young mother had two children. She was Mrs. M. Gushie, of Avondale, N.F. She had gone aboard the Stephano to join her husband, who was in Brooklyn, and she had her household goods along. "I was moving," she said, "and lost everything, even the babies' clothes and all my own. except what I stand in. But my own, except what I stand in. Bu' I don't care—I saved the best of all these. The rest doesn't count."
"My first thought when I heard that we were fired on was for the babies." she said. "I was at dinner and I rushed to get my little ones in the stateroom and get on a life belt; I didn't wait for anything else. When I got on deck I couldn't realize what had happened. It seemed like a nightmare.

"They led me along to the rail where there was a gangway and I went down it and jumped into a boat. Then they passed down my precious babies to me. It was a dreadful shock to my nerves, the fear that something might happen to them. I didn't breathe freely until I stood on the deck of the American destroyer."

Another woman who told her experience in protecting her child was Mrs. E. Rowe, of Trinity, Nfid. Like Mrs. Gushie, she was travelling alone, except for the company of her 3-year-old boy, Cyril.

year-old boy, Cyril.

"I had Cyril with me at the supper table when the ship was fired on," she said. "My first thought was to save him, and protect him from the weather. I took him in my arms and rushed for my stateroom. There I hurried on my hat and coat and his outside clothes. Then I rushed on deck and put on a life-preserver. When I got into the boat they passed my baby to me, and I hugged him tight as we rowed to the destroyer Balch. tight as we rowed to the destroyer Balch.

"When I got aboard the destroyer I right for I know we were felt all right, for I knew we were safe, he and I. It was an awful experience, the shock, I mean. You cannot understand what it meant to think that in a moment you may be thrown into the water with a helpless little one in your arms."

Cascarets "Best If Headachy, Bilious Sick, Constipated

Best for liver and bowels, bad breath, bad colds, sour stomach.

Get a 10-cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.
Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.
Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bite from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.
A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, complexion rosy and your liver and bowels regular for months.
