

Zam-Buk

Never Fails!

The W. K. McPherson of the 8th Battalion, writing home from France, "I wish we could get more Zam-Buk. It is certainly a boon to the soldier. It has cured my sore and blistered feet, cuts, scratches, and general soreness. I have saved me a great deal of suffering and prevention by being laid up. After marching and heavy marches and constant duty in the trenches I have had terribly with scalded toes and blistered heels. Although I have tried many remedies I have found nothing that can compare with Zam-Buk for these painful sores. It positively never fails." As a preventive of blood poisoning Zam-Buk is without equal. An application to an injury as soon as sustained prevents any possibility of infection. Zam-Buk should be carried by every man on active service and in training. Are you keeping your soldier friends supplied with Zam-Buk? Write to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, Ont. See box, 3 for $1.25.

Nurses Graduate.

Congratulations to Miss Ethel Pennington who was well up in the list of graduating Nurses from the Toronto General Hospital School, and who has the Dr. K. C. McMillan prize for the highest standing in Obstetrics. Miss Pennington, who is a daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Pennington, has volunteered for overseas work, but it has not yet been decided whether she shall go. The graduating class numbering 32, contained also the names of Miss Dorothy Berteau, daughter of the Auditor General, and Miss Florence Thompson, daughter of Magistrate Joseph, of Brigus, to whom also the Telegram extends congratulations.

F. H. STEER, Sec.-Treas.

RECRUITS ARRIVE.—Quite a number of recruits reached the city yesterday's express and were taken charge of by Pte. M. Sears. Practically all the men have been examined by import doctors.

WIDOWS NUMEROUS.—Upwards of 800 widows, large and small, were reported within sight of Cape St. Charles yesterday, several of which were the entrance to Bacallou's Tickle. Craft owners should take notice of this and govern themselves accordingly.

Argentia En Fete.

Argentia is dressed in bunting today in honor of the arrival of Rev. T. J. Devereaux, who has been chosen by the Grace the Archbishop to guide the future ecclesiastical destinies of the important parish. A marked sense of pleasure predominated here when the Rev. gentleman's arrival was learned of some few weeks ago, and when the news flashed over the wire that Fr. Devereaux was on his way to Argentia, pleasure developed into enthusiasm and a right royal welcome was exhibited which came from the hearts of a united and faithful Catholic people.—Com. Argentia, May 23rd, 1918.

Major Buchanan, C.E.F., Too Nervous to Sleep.

Lectures.

TO BIG AUDIENCE AT GREENFELL HALL.

"The Re-establishment in Civil Life of Discharged Soldiers," was the subject on which Major Buchanan of the Canadian Pensions Board, spoke at length to a crowded audience at the Greenfell Hall, King George V. Institute, last night. His Excellency Sir C. Alexander Harris, presided, and among those present were:—Major Gosling and Mrs. Gosling, Hon. J. and Mrs. Harvey, Hon. Speaker W. J. Higgins, K.C., Lieut.-Col. W. F. Rendell, Major Macpherson, Capt. G. Byrne, M.C., Capt. Howley, J. and Mrs. Browning, R. B. Job, Esq., Mr. A. B. Morine, K.C., and a number of the Great War Veterans' Association.

His Excellency in a brief speech introduced the speaker, Major Buchanan, for upwards of an hour and a half gave a descriptive and highly interesting account of the way the Canadian Government was treating their returned and disabled soldiers. There was an entire absence of the cold official way of doing things in the Major's address, and many were the humorous stories told. When a wounded or disabled soldier returns, the State sees that he is given immediate attention, adequate treatment, vocational training, adequate pensions and remunerative employment. Each soldier on return is placed in a category as benefits his disabilities. Those not affected, those suffering from shell shock, tuberculosis, etc. were all treated at various institutions. The shell shock cases are now very few, the majority of them being treated on the other side. Under expert treatment the system as directed by Lieut.-Col. Russell was 99 per cent. effective. Tubercular cases were sent to the sanatorium and remain there until such time as they are cured. But owing to some of the patients getting "fed up" on the treatment they refuse to remain the full period with results ultimately to their disadvantage. To overcome this the Pensions Commission reduce such malcontents pension 50 per cent. which has the desired effect, as in most cases he will return to the institution. Very few cases of insanity result from war causes, only three cases having been known, though about 750 cases existed, the origin of which was from hereditism, or brought about through other than direct war causes. In the latter instance no pensions were allowed. Tradesmen and others who were not fitted for the former position in life were fitted for some other work. The true soldier did not want mental or sympathetic pay; he wanted to earn it and not be under an obligation. Vocational training in Canada had been very successful, not one case being known where the soldiers failed after having adapted themselves to the work of the pre-war world. The Canadian Government by order in council, gave preference to soldiers, in the civil service, and allowed about 11,000 were doing government work. Others had entered the teaching profession while others had gone back to the land.

The Pension Commission, of which the Mayor was a member, was the successor of the old Military Pension Board, and had branches in all the large cities throughout the Dominion. Through this organization and business like methods, no less than $4,000,000 had been saved to Canada. The staff deals with 35,000 pensions and is capable of mailing all correspondence and cheques within two days. The pension fund last year amounted to $25,000,000. It was an erroneous idea on the part of a soldier to think that because he fought for his country his country owed him a living. "Your country," the lecturer said "does not owe you a living—it only owes you a means to get a living." Pensions were not given because a soldier lost a hand or a leg, but because the loss of either or both reduced his value in the labor market. Nor were pensions charity or sympathetic giving. The pensions in Canada at present $600 a year; if married with 3 children, $1234.00, until such time as the boys reached 16 years and the girls 17 years. A widow of a soldier would receive the full widow's pension. The lecturer dealt with the man who received no pension—the soldier who was discharged as not fit for overseas—though discharged as fit as when joined. After paying a tribute to the people of St. John's for their hospitality, the lecturer concluded his address amidst much applause.

A vote of thanks, moved by Dr. W. W. Blackall, and seconded by Dr. V. P. Burke, and supported by His Excellency the Governor was passed the lecturer by acclamation, and the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

Personal.

The following is taken from the current issue of The Westyan:—

Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, D.D., who has spent the winter with his son, Dr. Cowperthwaite, at Sydney, is tarrying for a few weeks at Truro, before proceeding to Newfoundland. The venerable doctor is in good health and spirits. He reports Brethren Bartlett and Dyer as carrying on an earnest and appreciated ministry. ## Early Messages.

LABOR MEMBERS RELEASED.

WELLINGTON, N.Z., May 27. In response to various petitions for the liberation of three members of the Labor party, sentenced on May 9th to imprisonment for sedition, the Government has decided to set the men at liberty on their finding sureties for good behavior.

RELATIONS NOT RUPTURED.

HAVANA, May 27. The Cuban State Department today despatched a circular cablegram to the Cuban diplomats in all foreign countries, advising them that diplomatic relations between Cuba and Mexico hadn't been ruptured.

BOURASSA'S VAPOURINGS.

MONTREAL, May 27. Le Devoir, the organ of Henri Bourassa, comments in its Bloc notes on the editorial page as follows in regard to the Halifax riots: "If the incidents that have taken place at Halifax had occurred in Montreal or Quebec, the press dispatches would have taken another tone about them. There is, however, nothing to be astonished about in what happened. The riots and disorders that have arisen in other cities through the actions of the sailors since the commencement of the war, showed that similar incidents would be repeated fairly often. Civilians would without doubt, under like circumstances, have received much more rigorous handling than Saturday's rioters."

WELL SERVED WITH RAILWAY.

On the French Front, May 27.—As pointed out in previous despatches, the Germans are well served with railroads in this region, enabling them to transport quickly large masses of troops from one point to another. Throughout last year the territory where the fighting has been in progress since early this morning was the scene of exceedingly fierce fighting which reached its climax in the battle of Malmesbach.

REPORTS SUBMARINES.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., May 27. It was learned here to-night that the master of the British steamer should have taken place in the water but owing to the C.H.E. Diplomats and Certificates being delayed, it had to be postponed. The concert was patriotic in nature and coming as it did, on the eve of Empire Day, it took the place of the usual Empire Day celebration, giving the pupils the opportunity to fully enjoy the day in the open. The programme was as follows: Opening Chorus—"The meeting of our Class"—School; Recitation—"Newfoundland's Love for Britain"—Exercise, "Britannia"; Recitation—"The Band of St. George"; Song—"The Lads in Navy Blue"; Recitation—"Pledge of Loyalty"; Motion Song by six little girls; Recitation—"Soldier's Letter"; Solo, "Knitting"; Dialogue—"The Quack Doctor"; By three boys; Exercise—"Red, White and Blue"; Exercise Chorus, "Flag Song"—School. Distribution of prizes and diplomas by Rev. T. T. Luk. This was the school's banner year in the C.H.E. The Preliminary pupils did remarkably well, two passing in Honors Division and several others gaining distinctions. Mr. T. LeFevre, M.H.A., gave a very nice address, in which he congratulated the pupils and teachers, and regretted that the weather was poor and that consequently the attendance was small. The pupils performed their parts creditably. Our thanks are due Mrs. Tulk for training the children for the musical part of the programme. The performance closed with the National Anthem.—Com.

CONGOLEUM

Floor Coverings

Here is the floor covering that combines low price with real beauty and durability. As compared with printed linoleum, which it resembles, Congoalum is more durable and more attractive, yet the price is less. Besides, it is waterproof and is easily laid. The large variety of designs, including tile, matting, floral and conventional patterns, make it suitable for every room.

Congoalum Rug Borders cannot be told from polished quartered oak when laid next to a rug or carpet. They solve many a problem in the household.

HIGHEST GRADE.

NOTICE!

Philadelphia, May 6th, 1918.

It has been brought to our attention that some persons are offering inferior floor covering, and representing same to be Congoalum.

We shall upon proof, take legal action to protect our trade mark.

See that the word CONGOLEUM is stamped on the back of the floor covering you buy, otherwise you are wasting your money.
