

Exchange Situation Under Discussion.

VLADIVOSTOCK TAKEN.
 WASHINGTON, Feb. 3. Revolutionists have entered Vladivostock and are in charge of the town. The War Department was advised today by Major General Graves, commanding the American Expeditionary Force in Siberia. General Graves' message is dated January 31. He said that the crowds in the city were orderly and that allied forces were patrolling the streets to protect innocent people and to prevent looting. The revolutionists' platform, the general said, declared for the end of civil war in Siberia and of interference by foreigners in the internal affairs of the country.

A MERITED TRIBUTE.
 LONDON, Feb. 3. The last session of the New Zealand parliament passed a resolution of profound gratitude to the Imperial and Allied navies and mercantile marine who by their ceaseless vigil in the face of unparalleled and unknown dangers kept open the long lines of sea communication.

BANKERS AND FINANCIERS IN COUNCIL.
 LONDON, Feb. 3. Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer discussed with leading political leaders and others this afternoon the situation that has arisen from the adverse rate of exchange. The greatest secrecy was maintained in connection with the proceedings, a report of which is being prepared for presentation to the cabinet. Great crowds witnessed the arrivals at the conferences who included, Sir Robert Cecil, Reginald McKenna, Robert Kindersley, chairman of the War Savings Commission, J. H. Thomas, Labor Leader, Walter Leaf, chairman of the London County, Westminster and Paris Bank, Sir Auckland Geddes, Minister of National Service and Construction, G. H. Stewart Dunning, secretary of the Postman's organization, Sir Richard Vassar Smith president and chairman of the council of Institute of bankers and Sir Donald Maclean, M.P.

BORDEN AT PORTSMOUTH.
 LONDON, Feb. 3. Sir Robert Borden landed at Portsmouth to-day with Lord Jellicoe from the battle cruiser New Zealand and will proceed to London. It was announced that his visit would be strictly private.

"FLU" IN MASSACHUSETTS.
 BOSTON, Feb. 3. Reports of new influenza cases in the state made to the department of health for the past 24 hours were almost double those of the previous 48 hour period.

EXCHANGE FIREWORKS.
 NEW YORK, Feb. 3. A further alarming crash in foreign exchange overshadowed all other considerations and developments in the stock market. Substantial shares were impaired by two to five points and many of the more speculative issues suffered greater depreciation. Further collapse of international credits not only carried remittances on London and leading European capitals to new points of discount but was so sweeping as to embrace the British Dominions. In Montreal for example, exchange on New York was at a premium of 13 1/4 per cent.

ANOTHER LOW RECORD.
 LONDON, Feb. 3. Pending efforts to be made by banking experts at a conference to clarify the money situation cable the transfer rate on New York this morning fell from $3.49 to 3.40. There is continued large demand for dollars.

A BIRTH RECORD.
 ALBANY, Ala., Feb. 3. Six children, two sets of triplets within fifteen months is the birth record of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Posey Livingstone of Albany. The second trio of children was born yesterday and all are well.

RIOTING FATALITIES.
 LONDON, Feb. 3. Richard Dwyer, a publican, was killed in rioting at Limerick on Monday, says a despatch from that city to the Star. A woman also received a shot in the body and is believed to be mortally wounded. A number of other persons were injured.

TRIAL OF TERRORISTS.
 BUDAPEST, Feb. 3. The trial of a large number of terrorists began yesterday. Count Apponyi, head of the Hungarian peace delegation, when asked if there was any persecution of Communists replied: "I have implicit confidence in the judges, who are moving so slowly that there have been only twenty-seven executions for murder so far, which is a small number, when it is remembered that Communists killed several thousand persons. Nobody is being arrested for opinions, but for acts."

BELGIAN PROTECTION.
 PARIS, Feb. 3. Discussions relative to the question of the defensive alliance between France, England and Belgium have progressed materially during the recent conferences at Ypres, according to Brussels despatch. It is said that the Belgian Government has drafted and sent to the French Government a general outline for the projected common defence in case of a future German attack.

RESTLESS EGYPT.
 CAIRO, Jan. 29. Definite solution of the Egyptian problem by the mission headed by Viscount Milner is improbable, although members of the British party have collected a great mass of information relative to the situation here. Popular excitement has reached a phase which makes it virtually impossible for the mission to negotiate with any representative Egyptian body, and it is believed that the deliberations will be adjourned and resumed in London unless the position changes soon.

HOLLAND'S CRIMINAL GUEST.
 PARIS, Feb. 3. The Entente rejoinder to the refusal of Holland to accede to the Allied demand for the extradition of former Emperor William is imminent, according to the Petit Parisien, which paper says that while the note will be generally conciliatory, it will consider in case of a new refusal by Holland, measures going as far as breaking diplomatic relations or a naval blockade of Dutch ports.

THE HUN CRIMINAL LIST.
 PARIS, Feb. 3. The draft of the note to be sent to Germany, in which is a list of the persons whose extradition is to be demanded by the Allies, was approved by the Council of Ambassadors at its meeting this morning. The note and the list will be handed over at once to the German representatives here. It was decided by the Council that neither note nor list should be made public here.

HUNGARIAN MONARCHY.
 BUDAPEST, Feb. 3. The designation of Archduke Joseph as King by the Hungarian National Assembly, seems probable as the result of a strong tendency in this country. This movement persists, despite objections to the Hapsburgs on the part of the Allies and of Hungarian Socialists.

MORE ITALIAN TROUBLE.
 ROME, Feb. 3. Reports have reached this city that the Italian steamer D'Annunzio has been attacked at the city of Trau on the Dalmatian coast and that she was forced to lower her Italian flag. It is said passengers on the vessel were wounded during the attack. Considerable excitement has been caused by this report, which follows rumors of similar incidents at Fiala and other cities on the eastern shore of the Adriatic.

ODESSA DOOMED.
 LONDON, Feb. 3. An official statement to the British War Office, from Odessa, under date of February 2, says that the Bolsheviks have captured Nikolaev and are now marching on Otchakov. The chances of holding Odessa are very doubtful.

TROUBLES IN ANATOLIA.
 BEIRUT, Feb. 3. Following in the wake of extremist propaganda in Anatolia, Asia Minor, clashes have occurred in Cilicia. Irregular forces from the mountains attempted a sudden attack. In regions occupied by the French a band attacked a station on the Bagdad railway. Troops sent from Anita have repulsed a late attack. In the region of Atab and Marash engagements have occurred between natives and brigands, and troops were compelled to intervene.

HOPE FROM SCANDINAVIA.
 COPENHAGEN, Feb. 3. Scandinavian Premiers and Foreign Ministers at a conference held, have decided to accept the invitation to join the League of Nations, it was learned here to-day.

HOLLAND'S NIGHTMARE.
 PARIS, Feb. 3. The Allied Powers are not contemplating for the present any such measures as the breaking off of diplomatic relations with Holland, or a blockade, according to the Journal des Debats. They will insist, it says, on the surrender of former Emperor William, but will not accompany a repetition of the demands with threats.

CLEMENCEAU THREATENED.
 GENEVA, Feb. 3. One of Egyptian Nationalist leaders here, Dr. Abdul Said, has addressed a telegram to former Premier Clemenceau of France, requesting him not to enter Egypt or else leave the country as soon as possible, otherwise the telegram says, his life would be in danger. Abdul Said accuses Clemenceau of joining the British against humanity and against Egyptian liberty.

Hockey Probs.
 It has not been decided yet whether a hockey team from Halifax will be brought here or whether a team from here will go up. It has been mooted that the "Socials" from Halifax, who have several of the best men in the Lower Provinces in their ranks, could be induced to come here and play a series of games.
