This morning a Royal Gazette ment of the above.

As announced by the Prime Minister at the meeting held in the Casino Theatre on Friday last, Mr. Monroe has decided to undertake the duties of Minister of Education but without salary.

It is expected that the Legislature will be called together as hye-elections necessitated by the | Special to Evening Telegram. departmental appointments will take place at an early date.

The work ahead of the Government is onerous in the extreme, but backed by the solid support of the country, and undertaken by a body of men possessing the talent and enthusiasm necessary for the accomplishment of Supple family, and the proceedings such a task, they are in a position to proceed with their programme with confidence and to restore order out of the chaos caused by the series of upheavals which have made our public affairs the cynosure of the eyes of the world.

The Prime Minister's Appreciation

"Mr. W. S.
