MR. PATRICK having purchased Mr. John H. Furt's stock of confectionery, is determined to clear the whole out in three days, to make room for his stock of drugs which is about to arrive in the store. See notice to advert.

WEST WARD.—Mr. George Murten requests us to say that he is a candidate for Councillor for the West Ward, and if elected will do all he can for the interests of the Ward and Town. He, however, will not make any canvass, but leaves the matter to the judgment and liberality of the ratepayers.

MOVEMENTS IN PORT.—Mr. J. T. Hill this week shipped 1 car load of hogs, average weight, 375 lbs.; 3 car loads to Montreal, average weight 230 lbs. He has also received, per W. Mackenzie, a Blue Railway from the States, 100 car loads. The supply of hogs is up.

PROMT PAYMENT.—On Wednesday the Township Council of Nassagaweya transmitted to Chief Constable Kelly the reward offered by that corporation for the apprehension of Emmanuel Kemp, now lying in jail awaiting his trial for rape committed in that township last summer. Chief Constable Kelly is well entitled to the reward, and the Township Council deserve credit for their prompt payment of it.

BUSINESS CHANGES.—We learn that Mr. Thomas Gowdy has purchased the Litchfield property, recently sold to Mr. W. Sharp, one of the partners in the former firm of Messrs. Gowdy, Stewart & Co., and intends carrying it on in all its branches. The late firm have also sold the "Confederation" Mill, near Milton, to Mr. Samuel Cox, of Nassagaweya, for $41,000, also their "Globe" Mill to Messrs. Douglas & Bannerman, late of Guelph, for $10,000.

ORDINATION.—On the 18th ult., the Presbytery of Guelph in connection with the Canada Presbyterian Church ordained and inducted the Rev. D. McMillan to the pastoral oversight of the associated congregations of South Luth and Amaranth. In the afternoon of the same day a social gathering was held in the church in South Luth which was quite a success, the proceeds amounting to about $50. The whole of the services were of most interesting character.

THE MERCURY NEWS.—We have received the first copy of a new paper bearing the above name, and published by Mr. Wm. McCarter, for a long time one of the employees in The Mercury Office. It is a neat little sheet, well printed and well got up; and we have doubtless, under Mr. McCarter's careful management, will become a permanent institution in the thriving village of Monfort. We wish the publisher all success in his new venture.

CHANCE & WILLIAMSON'S GREAT SALE, as announced by us to begin on Thursday, 2nd January, will not commence till to-morrow (Saturday), the 4th inst. The bankrupt stock, being large, is just coming forward. The rush at the Lion is immense at the present time, every spare moment, early and late, being employed marking the stock down to cost and under. Everything indicates that this will be the greatest sale ever known in Guelph.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular weekly meeting was held last night, the President, Dr. McGuire, in the chair. Being the first meeting of the year it was turned into a devotional one, several members taking part. Next Thursday there will be several members of the Fergus Y. M. C. A. present, and it is hoped there will be a large meeting to welcome them. The members invite all friends to the Sunday morning and evening prayer meetings in the association's room. The morning meeting commences at a quarter past nine to ten, and the evening meeting after the churches come out, for about an hour.

FALL INTO A WELL.—Yesterday (Thursday) a steer belonging to Messrs. Harris & Cochrane, drovers, fell into a well 12 feet deep, on a vacant lot below the York Sled, belonging to Widow Oliver, York Road. The steer, after a confinement of upwards of three hours, was liberated through the exertions of the Messrs. Birmingham, whose well sinking crane was found very useful in the emergency. The steer was unharmed, and scampered off gaily as soon as he reached terra firma. A dealer, who was examining the animal with a view to purchase, made an almost miraculous escape from a situation.

disappearance with the steer.

The spot is a very dangerous one, especially when covered with snow, as was the case at the time of the accident.

NEW CARRIAGE WHEEL FACTORY IN GUELPH.

We have pleasure in announcing that another factory has been started in Guelph. Messrs. R.R. Dalgleish & Co. have commenced to manufacture all kinds of carriage, buggy and wagon wheels. Such a manufactory will be a great convenience and a positive gain to carriage and wagon makers. The wheels will be made by those engaged exclusively in the business, who can thus turn them out quicker and better than those who are for the most part engaged in other departments of the business. The workmen employed by Messrs. Dalgleish & Co. are thoroughly experienced, and as they use none but the best and most carefully seasoned wood, their work is first-class. We trust those engaged in the trade, both in town and country, will give them their patronage, and that their factory, which is opposite the Agricultural Works, near the Erasmos Bridge, will soon be too small for their rapidly growing business.

Local and Other Items.

New Presbyterian Churches have been opened at Markham and Cookstown.

The Rev. Dr. Punshon will lecture in Galt on the 14th inst.

In the death of the late Andrew Matheson, North Dumfries has lost another of its earliest pioneers, and one of its most respected inhabitants.

On Wednesday, while Robert Weddell, a respectable farmer near Queensville, was killing a beef on his own farm, he fell dead. It is supposed that he was afflicted with disease of the heart.

On New Year's day, in St. Mary's Cathedral, Hamilton, his Lordship, Bishop Farrell presented the Lord of the St. Patrick's Society with a handsome banner, as a mark of his appreciation towards the members of the same, who were executed at Lyons, France, and is an excellent piece of workmanship.

BURGLARY IN GALT.—We learn from the Reporter that on Saturday night a burglar got into Mr. T. McMillan's seed store, but bagged only $3. He then made for Mr. Hoar's grocery store, but could find no money. He broke a pane of glass in the solar window, by which about 300 bushels of potatoes were frozen. The burglar has not been caught.

The quiet progress of a wedding in a Connecticut village church, recently, was interrupted by an amusing incident. In repeating the words, "If you know of any just cause," &c., the minister looked straight at a nervous young man directly in front of him. The fellow sprang up with such haste and precipitation and blurted out: "Oh, no, bless me not the slightest objection, sir."

Mr. Fenn, the well known Baltimore manager, is envious of the fame of the seed fairies among the poor children of that city. He gave on Christmas Day a bright and showy performance for their special behoof, and added after the play innumerable presents for the little people whose eyes he had feasted gratis. This was one of the biggest Christmas trees on record.

BADLY FROST BIT.—The Fergus News Report says: On Thursday, the 26th ult., Mrs. John Blakely, of Luther, gave birth to a son, and a few hours afterwards both mother and son took convulsions of the most violent character at the same instant. An old woman named Mrs. Farrell, who was acting as nurse, sent Mrs. Blakely's eldest daughter, aged 5 years, to a neighbor's, to get some one to go for Dr. Henderson. While waiting through the snow the child got her hands badly frozen, blisters raising on them twice as big as her hands. The Dr. was summoned with all possible haste. The mother came round but the child died. By good treatment the girl will regain the use of her hands.

PRESENTATION TO REV. DEAN BOOMER.—The Reporter says that the presentation of the Silver Plate to Dean Boomer, made on behalf of the inhabitants and clergymen of Galt, on the occasion of the removal of the Dean from Galt to London, took place at the town hall, on Thursday evening, the 26th Dec. The occasion was a happy one in some respects, although the Dean's removal was sincerely felt by all those who assembled to do him honor. The plate consisted of a silver, large water pitcher and two very beautiful drinking cups. The articles were purchased in New York, and were very chaste and elegant. The silver bore the following inscription: "Presented to the Very Rev. M. Boomer, L.L.D., Dean of Huron, on his removal to London, by the inhabitants of Galt, Ontario, as an expression of their high esteem for his character and worth, during his residence among them of thirty-two years, A. D. 1872."

The Late Accident at Widder.

FURTHER PARTICULARS. AILSA CRAIG, Jan. 2.

Yesterday afternoon No. 6 Express ran off the track one hundred yards east of the large iron bridge, which crosses the Sauble near Widder. The engine tore up the bridge fearfully, and the coaches following came with a sudden crash into the debris, the first coach telescoping the baggage car, and instantly killing Mr. Douglas, the baggage-man, and Wilkes, a brakeman. The second coach and Pullman car remained on the track. No passengers were hurt.

The accident is supposed to have been caused by the trailing wheel of the engine getting off the track.

Driver Schryer whistled "on brakes," reversed and jumped as the engine struck the bridge. He is slightly injured.

The bridge is completely blocked with the wreck, and the track cannot be cleared till this afternoon.

THE INQUEST.

Special to THE MERCURY. Parkhill, Dec. 3.—A coroner's inquest was held here yesterday before Dr. Caw, coroner of this place, on the bodies of James Douglas and Charles Wilkes, the unfortunate men who were killed at the late railway accident near Widder Station. The following is the verdict:—"That the deceased James Douglas and Charles Wilkes came to their death on the 1st day of January, 1873, from the engine of the train on which they were employed mounting the rail, and we are of the opinion that no blame can be attached to the Grand Trunk Railway Company or their employees, and we would desire to testify to the praiseworthy act of the deceased James Douglas and Charles Wilkes by remaining at their posts during the accident."

Accident at Salem.

A Brave Boy.

A boy, Frederick Perraine by name, and only fourteen years of age, had occasion to go from some place near Exmouth in England, in a small dingy, when the tide suddenly swept him out into the open sea. There was a brisk gale from the N.E., and the boy immediately got up his mast and sail, vainly hoping to find some sheltered place where he could land. He was fast driven, however, upon the heavy breakers. When he was within a few hundred yards of Dawlish Beach he anchored, in the desperate hope of holding on until the sea should a little subside. He had now attracted the attention of those on shore to his perilous situation, but it was impossible to send him aid without too great a risk of life. Nothing could live in the broken water, with occasional heavy rollers, except a life-boat, and the life-boat was at Teignmouth. The little fellow in the dingy made up his mind that he would soon swamp where he was; so he rapidly took up his mast and sail again, weighed his anchor and stood to the westward, his craft almost on her beam ends. With lightning "precision and decision" he selected the only spot where he could possibly have landed, and boldly bearing up, he pushed his little boat into the foamy surf. Over the first roller she went
