LOCAL MARKET

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son,
London, Thursday, May &
There was no change in the wheat situation to-day. The demand was good. Values fluctuated between $1 33 and $1 40, the latter price being less frequently paid than yesterday. Oats were scarce and the demand very good; prices advanced 2c per 100 bs. Peas steady and no alteration in values occurred.
The deliveries of eggs were good to-day, and prices steady and unchanged; 3c per dozen was the price paid in large quantities, while some small lots are reported as having been dealt at $10 in trade. Butter was steady. Outside of the above we see little of any moment in today's market. The rain had a damaging effect as usual. Quotations:

SAVED THE MONEY.

Mayor Spencer and the Council and Board of Trade delegation who accompanied him to Ottawa to forward the city interests in the London and Port Stanley Railway Bill, have more than one reason for felicitation on the outcome of their labors. The aidermanic deputation were given authority, at a special meeting of the City Council, to buy out the claims of St. Thomas, amounting to $41,000, if they found it necessary to do so in order to secure the legislation desired by London. By energetic action, however, the deputation got the ear of the parliamentary committee, and had their bill passed without the expenditure of the money.

Non-Professional Examinations, July, 1892.

The primary (or Class III) examination begins on Monday, July 11, and continues until July 14, inclusive; the Junior Leaving (or Class II) examination also begins on July 11 and terminates on July 20, and the Senior Leaving (First C) examination begins July 20 and ends Aug. 1.

Intending candidates should notify the city or county inspector, who will give them the necessary forms of application, which should be filled up and returned to him not later than May 24.

A Righteous Complaint.

A Righteous Complaint. A Parent sends the following complaint for publication: "Askin Street School was dismissed to-day during the heavy rainstorm, and children were compelled to expose themselves to the wet weather. My little girl, though she had sense enough to protest, was compelled to line up an go out with the other unfortunates wit the result that she was thoroughly soaked the result that she was thoroughly soaked when she got home. I do not infer that my children are any better than any of the others, but why should such a rule be applied to any child? Then to make matters worse, many of the little ones have to go a block or more out of their way, on account of the boys and girls being compelled to use separate gates. Thus, a girl living on Becher street is forced to go out by a gate on the south of the school and walk all the way back to the street she lives on. Nice business on a wet day like to-day. Nice business on a wet day like to-day. Do such school laws exist? or is it a nonsensical whim of the teachers?"

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Close of the Debate on the Caro Scandal This Morning.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]
OTTAWA, May 5.:—The debate on the Caron charges concluded at 3:15 this morning without any speeches being made from the Government to Sir R. Cartwright's sub-amendment. Mr. Davies and Mr. Casey were the last speakers. The Government had its following well in hand, and their full majority was reached. The vote was on Sir Richard's sub-amendment, 63 yeas to 123 nays. The Government's amendment was then passed by a vote of 125 to 63, it being agreed the names of the commission were to be submitted to the House for approval. The Heuse adjourned at 3:35 a.m. [Special to the ADVERTISER.]

Resolution to Leave.

The London Presbytery held a special meeting Tuesday to consider the resignation of Rev. Mr. Simpson, of Melbourne. The unanimous resolutions of the congregation, expressive of the cordial relations between pastor and people, of the esteem in which he was held and the regret felt at his step were submitted. Messrs. Alexander Campbell and Lockwood, of Melbourne, and Graham, Fletcher, Campbell and Murray, of Riverside, represented large deputations from the two parts of the congregation. Mr. Simpson declined to reconsider his resignation. He desired to return to the Maritime Provinces where his family connections were and was strengthened in that wish by the annoyance he had experienced at the hands of one or two recalcitrant parishioners. The following resolution was passed by the Presbytery: "Having heard the delegates, and also Mr. Simpson the Presbytery record with great pleasure the testimony borne by the delegates from both congregations to the material progress the congregations to the material progress the congregations have made during Mr. Simpson's pastorate, to the cordial relations existing hetween the two sister congregations, and among the people themselves, regret that Mr. Simpson has had occasion to feel constrained to press his resignation, and in accepting the same express sympathy with the congregation in their present circumstances, assure them of all help and encouragement in the express sympathy with the congregation in their present circumstances, assure them of all help and encouragement in the Lord; and hope that the great Head of the church will speedily raise up for them a suitable pastor. The Presbytery, with deep regret, ordered that the pastoral tie be dissolved on the 29th day of May, that the pulpit be declared vacant on that day by Rev. A. Henderson, and that he act as interim moderator of session thereafter, with power to moderate on a call before next regular meeting of Presbytery, if necessary." The meeting was then adjourned. journed.

LATER.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—Meagre details have been received by Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Raifroad efficials of a horrible wreck at Medill, Mo. The Chicago limited express direct from the coast and San Francisco, was thrown from a bridge near that point at 8 o'clock this morning. So far as known all the cars of the magnificent train, loaded as they were with transcontinental passengers eastward bound, were buried in the waters of a flooded ravine. It is already known that many were then har passengers eastward bound, were buried in the waters of a flooded ravine. It is already known that many were crushed and drowned and more injured.

The best information so far obtained is that 7 persons were killed outright and 23 injured. None of the names of the killed or injured have yet been obtained. Medill is a small town about 25 miles beyond the Mississippi, within a few miles of the place in a deep ravine, usually dry. It is spanned by a 50-foot arch, which it is supposed the heavy rains weakened and finally displaced. The wrecked train was due in this city this evening. Being an overland and limited train, its usually well-filled with the best class of passengers. All the Santa Fe wires are down. The engineer and fireman were among the killed.
