FISTIC.

McGOVERN VS. GANS.
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—Sporting Heras yesterday signed the articles of agreement for a match between Terry McGovern and Joe Gans. It is to occur Dec. 11 before the Tattersall Athletic Club, Chicago. Gans is to weigh in at 133 pounds at 7 o'clock, and must finish McGovern in six rounds or forfeit. The purse is to be divided, 75 per cent to winner and 25 per cent to loser.

"TERRIBLE TERRY" WINS FROM BERNSTEIN.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 2.—Terry McGovern, the marvel of the prize ring, defeated Joe Bernstein, of New York, in the seventh round, before the Non-partisan Athletic Club and 5,000 people tonight. The feather-weight championship was involved, and the battle was scheduled for 25 rounds, according to the eastern interpretation of straight Marquis of Queensberry rules. The inducement was a purse of $2,500, of which the victor received $2,500. George Stier was referee. Bernstein had withstood the onslaught of the Brooklyn wonder for 20 rounds before the Broadway Athletic Club in New York, April 23, 1899, and his entrance into the arena a second time to do battle with the bantam and feather-weight champion of the world was characterized by confidence and determination. He had been here for several days preparing himself, and was trained to the hour. "Terrible Terry," with all the ferocity and speed for which he is noted, took his time, only occasionally sailing into Bernstein, but when he did, it was a slashing succession of blows, which appeared to be snatched from a mysterious source. After two minutes and five seconds of the seventh round, he rammed, banged and beat down his opponent. Bernstein was badly dazed, and could not speak for several seconds. Jack Isaac acted as Bernstein's time-keeper; Jack McKee officiated for McGovern. In the final round McGovern showed his whirlwind form, and ripped killing stabs that took the steam out of his opponent. Down Bernstein went repeatedly, the

A GOOD STORY

A certain young lady in delicate health was advised by her doctor to take a half-teaspoonful of Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil after dinner—once a day—and found herself almost suddenly growing robust.

So small a dose is by no means the rule; the rule is whatever the stomach will bear—not more. Another rule is: take it on every least occasion, but not too much; don't overdo it.

AT NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 2.—Jockey McCue carried off the honors at the Empire City track today, winning three out of five races in which he was entered. In the first, with Flaunt at 7 to 5 and 3 to 5; the second, with Caribou, at 4 to 5 and out; and the fifth on Pigeon Post, at 30 to 1 and 12 to 1. Mesaba, at 10 to 1, took the Hillsdale handicap, making all the running, and winning, ridden out, by one length, from Candie, who was a head before the favorite, Glen Eddie. The fourth race, a handicap, at one mile and 70 yards, was the feature of the day from a racing standpoint. Godfrey topped by Belle of Troy, made the running to the far turn, while the others cleverly bunched a length away. The pace-makers came into the stretch head and head, but Godfrey stopped on the run home, and Belle of Troy, coming away, won cleverly by a length and a half from First Whip, who closed strong. Withers beat the favorite, King Bramble, half a length for show money. St. Finnan made a runaway race of the last event. He went to the front on the back stretch, and opened up a gap of ten lengths, and at the end won, ridden out, by two lengths, from the second, a favorite. A bad start ruined the latter's chance. The weather was clear and bright the track dry but dead, and the attendance poor.

GOLF.

DEFEATED CHAMPION TRAVIS.

New York, Nov. 2.—The surprise of the golfing season occurred today at the Westchester Club's links, when Champion Walter J. Travis was beaten by W. L. Thompson, of Baltusrol, who is not considered formidable in his own club. At the finish of the first nine holes Thompson had Travis 4 down. The latter made a strong effort to overtake him, but could not. The champion's game showed great improvement. Thompson was always a shade better. The score was: Thompson, 5, 6, 6, 4, 5, 3, 3, 6, 4—42; Travis, 7, 8, 5, 5, 5, 6, 5, 5, 5—50; Thompson, 6, 5, 5, 5, 5, 4—34—76; Travis, 4, 5, 5, 4, 6, 6—35. It is the first time Travis has been defeated since the Lakewood tournament last April.

Pointers for Traducers

We need the charity that "thinketh no evil." It is to be hoped that church members will not fall out with each other because of political differences in this campaign. The oil of persuasion has been exchanged for the oil of vitriol in some speeches. It is a campaign of attack. The spirit of uncharitable sarcasm is liable to grow. The country is provided with distinct issues. Patriots will differ and do differ, as to the question of national policy, and on such question, unless there is some patented standard of inability, men good and true will disagree. It was so in Great Britain in the recent election, and it is so in the United States in the Presidential election now in progress. Gentlemen will not get mad, they will not show their teeth, they will debate as gentlemen, they will not show the spirit of the prize ring agitator, but do not abuse.—Christian Guardian.

Protest!

From English-Speaking Citizens of Quebec

Against the Racial Campaign as Carried on Particularly in Ontario.

Montreal, Nov. 1.—Following is a resolution which speaks for itself and is being largely signed:

"We, the undersigned, English-speaking citizens of the Province of Quebec, feel that it is our duty, in view of the misrepresentations that are being freely made to the contrary in the other provinces of the Dominion, particularly in Ontario, to declare that not only is there mutual tolerance and respect between the population of French origin in this province and ourselves, but that we have the oldest conscience that our rights and privileges be upheld under the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

We are represented by two English-speaking and Protestant gentlemen in the Quebec Cabinet. We have our own committee of public instruction, administering our separate schools, and our full share of the public money. At the present time our fellow-countrymen of French origin are giving their hearty support to candidates of English origin and Protestant faith in several constituencies where the French-speaking and Roman Catholic electors are in the majority, and the same thing has been done on many past occasions.

"Particularly in this campaign the Liberal party has for its candidate in the county of Beauharais, where there are only some three or four hundred English-speaking voters, Mr. George M. Loye, who is meeting with the hearty and active support of the French-speaking fellow-electors. In the county of Missisquoi Mr. Daniel Messier, an English-speaking gentleman and Protestant, has the full support of the French-speaking and Catholic Liberals of that county, against Dr. Comeau, a French-Canadian Conservative. In the united counties of Richmond and Wolfe, the French-Canadians are supporting Mr. Tolin, a gentleman of Irish origin, against Mr. Crepeau, a French-Canadian supporter of Sir Charles Tupper. We most solemnly declare that no appeal to racial and religious feelings and prejudices is being made by the Liberal party in the Province of Quebec during the present campaign, and we earnestly protest against the attempts being made as above in the English-speaking Protestant provinces, and particularly in the Province of Ontario, to make it appear to our fellow-citizens of English and Protestant faith that the French-Canadians of this province are desirous of securing sectional and racial influence in the government of the Dominion, and are voting for Sir Wilfrid Laurier because he is of French descent and a member of the Roman Catholic Church, or that any distinction whatever is made between Canadians of different origin, language and religion in the platform and appeal of the Liberal party. (Signed).

STOLE A CORPSE.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 2.—On Halloween night the town had long been asleep when was committed one of the most daring acts in university annals. The women's dissecting room in the anatomical laboratory was broken into and a corpse, partially cut up by the co-ed medical students was stolen. The dead body was carried across the campus and propped up on the main steps leading into University Hall. Early in the morning a student crossing the campus saw the body, and it was immediately whisked back to the "long red table" in the dissecting room. Two students suspected of the act have been rusticated.

Dun's Review of Trade.

New York, Nov. 2.—There is everywhere confidence in better things if the national honor is sustained by the ballot of Tuesday. Encouraging signs multiply in the iron industry. Full forces are employed at New England shoe shops, and heavy orders insure brisk work for the rest of the year. Prices have not advanced for the finished articles with leather and hides. Textile operations are more vigorous, sales of wool at the three chief eastern markets exceeding all recent records, with a total of 7,804,500 pounds. There was some recovery in wheat, started by the statement that Argentina would not be able to export freely this year, because of injury to the growing crop. Corn did not join the advance to any extent, and provisions were generally quiet, except for a corner in October pork, which compelled trades on the short side to cover contracts at $20 when the month ended. Small concessions are made by importers of raw sugar.

A STRANGE CASE

Eye Trouble Which Developed Into Running Sores.

Doctors Said It Was Consumption of the Blood, and Recovery Was Looked Upon as Almost Hopeless—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Wrought a Cure.

[From the Herald, Georgetown, Ont.]

Our reporter recently had the pleasure of calling on Mr. Wm. Thompson, papermaker, at Wm. Barbur & Bros. mills, a well-known and respected citizen of our town, for the purpose of acquiring the details of his son's long illness and his remarkable recovery through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Thompson kindly gave us the following information, which will speak for itself. "About two and a half years ago my eldest son, Garnet, who is 15 years old, took what I supposed to be inflammation in his left eye. He was taken to a physician, who advised me to take him to an eye specialist, which I did, only to find that he had lost the sight of the eye completely. The disease spread from his eye to his wrist, which became greatly swollen, and was lanced no less than eleven times. His whole arm was completely useless, although he was not suffering any pain. From his wrist it went to his foot, which was also lanced a couple of times, but without bringing relief. The next move of the trouble was to the upper part of the leg where it broke out in large quantities of matter running from the sore. All this time my boy was under the best treatment I could procure, but with little or no effect. The trouble was pronounced consumption of the blood and I was told by the doctors that you would not come across a case like it in 500. When all was discouraged and not knowing what to do for the best, a friend of mine urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saying that he had a son who was afflicted with a somewhat similar disease and had been cured by the pills. I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and secured some of them at the drug store, and after my boy had taken two boxes I could see the color coming back to his sallow complexion, and noted a decided change for the better. He went on taking them and in a few months from the time he started to use them I considered him perfectly cured and not a trace of the disease left, except his blind eye, the sight of which he had lost before he started to use the pills. He has now become quite fleshy and I consider him one of the healthiest boys in the community. If any person is desirous of knowing the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills you may direct them to me, as I can highly recommend them to any person afflicted as my boy was."

A TIMELY CONFESSION.

The Windsor Record bitterly when Mr. Fielding's tobacco posed it was introduced three years ago. Now that journal makes the following confession of faith: "Notwithstanding the abuse of this journal, and with it nine-tenths of the trade, heaped on the tobacco tariff when revised by the present administration in 1887, and the statements then made that it was nonsense to presume that Canadian tobacco could ever become a factor in the trade, the situation today is such that we are compelled in simple justice and by force of facts, to admit the wisdom of the administration in the measure then adopted. Not only have our farmers grown tobacco quite the equal of that used for plug smoking and chewing by the foreign leaf factories; not only was upwards of $600,000 left in the hands of Canadian farmers last year that once went to American leaf markets, but the great mass of the people have been given just 50 per cent more tobacco of equal quality for the same money than under the old tariff. Beyond this a practically new industry has sprung into life; 25 new factories are now turning out Canadian tobacco products, and this influx of capital is ample evidence of the importance and wisdom of the measure. The tax, it is true, did for a time operate as a direct burden.

The Russian army on a peace footing consists of about 896,000 officers and men. In war it would number about 1,500,000 men.

TOBACCO PLUG ARGUMENT

Interesting Illustration by Mayor Teetzel of Hamilton.

He Turns the Tables on an Opponent of the Western Ontario Tobacco Industry.

At the nomination of candidates in Hamilton, Mr. Bruce, for the opposition, denounced the tobacco policy of the government, which has done so much to build up the native tobacco industry in Canada and greatly developed the manufacture of the article throughout Western Ontario.

When Mayor Teetzel, one of the Liberal nominees, took the floor, he said:

I ask Mr. Bruce to be good enough to lend me a couple of plugs of tobacco. (Laughter.) You know Mr. Bruce is quite entertaining, and he has been giving some object lessons in tobacco.

Mr. Bruce produced two plugs and handed them over to Mr. Teetzel, who continued:

This big plug is a soft affair. I guess it is the Tory plug. (To Messrs. Bruce and Barker, who nodded assent.) This smaller plug is nice and firm. I guess it is the Grit plug.

Voice—We have the money to buy it, now.

Mr. Teetzel—This big soft plug represents the trade of Canada in 1896. These two plugs together represent the trade of 1900. (Applause.)

Another fact is that the total increase of exports in the four years of Liberal rule was $18,000,000 yearly, which is eight times as large as the average yearly increase under Tupper. There are not enough plugs of tobacco here to illustrate how many times larger the increase of exports under the Liberals than under the Conservatives—(Cheers)—but the object lesson is this—One plug represents the increase under the Tories; eight plugs represents the increase under the Liberals. I ask Mr. Bruce to bring a whole caddy of tobacco to the next meeting, that I may demonstrate to you more clearly how much more the Liberals have done for the country than the Tories. (Renewed applause.)

In four years under Liberal rule the exports from Canada have exceeded the imports into Canada by $40,000,000, while under the Conservatives the imports exceeded the exports by $10,000,000 a year. If the amount of exports over imports is an evidence of prosperity, and that is a Conservative doctrine, then I will require another caddy of tobacco to give you the object lesson.

During the last three years of Tory rule the deficit was $3,569,400, but in the last three years of Liberal rule the government had a surplus of $6,000,000 and this year there is a surplus of $7,000,000 more, so that besides saving $4,500,000 to the people of Canada in taxes, we have increased the public wealth $18,000,000. Gentlemen, I need half a dozen caddies of tobacco to illustrate that.

They say we increased the public debt. Well, in the eighteen years the Conservatives were in power the public debt was increased $6,500,000 a year. There has been an increase under Liberal Government of $1,700,000 year. Still more caddies, please.
