DEATH OF W. P. VANSTON.
W. P. Vanston, formerly ticket agent at the Grand Trunk Depot in this city, died at Wexham, N. J., this week. Mr. Vanston left London several years ago, since which time he has resided in the States.

LEAVING LONDON.
Dr. C. F. Neu, of Richmond street, has given up his practice here, and will remove to Indianapolis, where he is to be the superintendent in the laboratory of a large insane asylum. Dr. Neu practiced here for upwards of ten years, and was a member of the Medical School staff.

WORKING OVERTIME.
The work on the King street pavement has been delayed to such an extent by the breaking of the stone-crusher and the unfavorable weather that the Warren Company now have their force of men working every evening until 8 o'clock. The surface is now being placed on the pavement and the entire block will be finished this week.

SAVED FROM DROWNING.
Principal Baker, of St. George's school, saved a little north end boy from drowning yesterday afternoon. Ross, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Roberts, of 78 Waterloo street, managed to remove the lid from the cistern, and while playing about the opening, fell in. The water was several feet deep. The boy's mother was attracted by his cries, but being unable to rescue him, she raised an alarm, which brought Mr. Baker, who lives opposite the scene. The child was unconscious when brought from the water, but was soon revived.

EXCEPTIONALLY GOOD SHOW.
The attraction bank Park this week are exceptionally good. Last night one of the largest crowds of the season occupied the stand, and there was standing room only. Possibly the best turn of the week is that of Jones and Walton, who are old favorites with London audiences. They are clever vaudevillians, and Miss Walton, who is a native of Stratford, is a dancer of great ability. Their sketch, "Our Country Cousin," is well put together, and is bright and snappy. In the way of a musical number, they have a distinct top-line for the week, if not the season. With the aid of a bunch of rags of every description, they make pictures on a large frame. They secure remarkable effects. Warren and Howard, "The Millionaire," is a good impression, and Leberts, the contortionist, proved to be one of the cleverest ever seen here. Young Eugene Lockhart, in songs and dances, was well received.

VACATION VISITORS.
Miss Ruth Kern has returned to her home in Woodstock.

Mr. John Carley, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is the guest of his brother on Talbot street.

Mr. Frank G. Murphy, of 246 Dundas street, has gone on a two-weeks' trip to Muskoka.

Miss Jennie Chas. of Hamilton, is the guest of Mrs. A. Templeton, 155 Waterloo street.

Miss Gladys E. Moore, of Chicago, is visiting Miss H. L. Rhyard, 463 Dufferin avenue.

Mrs. J. A. J. and children, of Detroit, are visiting Mrs. James Morrison, King street.

Miss Beatrice Baer has returned to London, having just visited with her parents in Woodstock.

Mrs. Frank Riley and daughter, of Petrolia, are visiting Mrs. W. Birmingham at 803 Colborne street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McLean and daughter, 576 Mainland street, leave today on a trip to Montreal, taking the boat at Toronto. They will be away a month.

John M. Hargreaves, a London Old Boy, now manager of the Ottawa branch of the McCormick Manufacturing Company, is in the city for a few days.

Mr. S. Munro, senior partner of John Marshall & Co., who recently returned from the European markets, has left for Montreal and the Maritime Provinces on an extended business trip.

Mrs. J. H. Moahr, Chicago, and her brother, Mr. K. Egan, have been spending a pleasant week with friends here.

Miss Anna May Gair, a prominent Chicago vocalist, is spending her vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Munro, 24 Dufferin avenue, and other relatives in this city.

Mr. Charles H. Elliott and wife, of South London, have gone to Marysville, Mich., where they were called owing to the death of John E. Mills.

Mr. W. E. Manness has gone on a visit to Boston, Mass., Providence, R. I., and New York city. He will also stay with friends at Atlantic Highlands during yacht races.

THIRD DAY OF BIG REUNION
AS MERRY AS THE FIRST

Springbank Again the Scene of the Old Boys' Fun.

Bright Weather Induced Larger Crowds To See the Sports.

Baseball Match Was a Winner - Fred Goldsmith Pitched - Old Tecumseh Men Played - The Score.

The London Old Boys' reunion is over. It has been the most successful in the history of the Old Boys' movement anywhere in Canada, and the citizens of London may well feel proud of the manner in which the local association entertained the visitors and the way these visitors enjoyed themselves. There are still a great number of people in the city as a result of the Old Boys' reunion, as many have friends with whom they desire to stay a few days longer. Many of the Old Boys, however, have gone, and London now is a much quieter city than it was a few days ago.

Yesterday saw the last of the demonstration. A trolley ride about the city, a couple of baseball matches and a banquet at the Kennels in the evening were the concluding features. There was quite a large crowd at the city hall in the afternoon, ready to go around the city on the street railway system, and thence down to Springbank. The large Springbank cars were requisitioned, and the people had a fine time, those from out of town thoroughly enjoying seeing the growth of the city shows.

THE BALL GAMES.
There were two ball games of short duration at Springbank in the afternoon.

The first was between the Cleveland boys and the all-comers. The former's team were: McLean, C. Wright, p; Gail, H.; Hickson, 2b; Stoll, 3b; Pommerville, ss; Haystead, lf; Hodgins, cf; Gillett, rf; Roberts, R. A. C. Carothers.

The defeated team then played a game with the Old-Timers. The latter team comprised some of the old veterans, including men from the once famous ball team of 1877. Fred Goldsmith was in the box for them and how near the cars go to the posts along the way. When the car was crossing the overhead bridge his knee struck one of the posts and it made a nasty wound. Dr. Hunt, of New York, a London Old Boy, was on the car, and he dressed the boy's injured leg, accompanying him back to his home. The little fellow had to have five stitches in his knee, which will be painful for some time yet.

A feature in connection with the accident was the selling of his souvenirs by Ald. Matthews. Alderman Dick took the tray that the boy had been selling from and during the ball game at the park the whole lot of them were sold and $12 handed over to the boy. The thoughtful act was much appreciated by the lad, as well as the kindness of Dr. Hunt.

THE BANQUET IN THE EVENING.
The banquet at the Kennels followed the trip to Springbank. The London Hunt Club were the hosts of the Old Boys, and gave them a good time. The banquet was held on the verandas of the clubhouse. A toast list was gone through and a programme was given by Dr. Fred Wood, Ald. Becher and others, including the bugle band.

The first toast was that proposed by

Mayor Beck, "The King." Then followed "The President of the United States," responded to by Mr. J. K. Brown, of Jackson, Minn., who made an appropriate speech. Sergt. Hueston, of the National Guard, Chicago, and

U. S. SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA
Recommends Pe-ru-na
For Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble

Cataarrh of the Stomach is Generally Called Dyspepsia—Something to Produce Artificial Digestion is Generally Taken.

Hence, Pepsin, Pancreatin and a Host of Other Digestive Remedies Has Been Invented.

These Remedies Do Not Reach the Seat of the Difficulty, Which is Really Catarrh.

E. X. U. S. Senator M. C. Butler, from South Carolina, was Senator from that State for two terms. In a recent letter to the Pe-ru-na Medicine Company from Washington, D. C., he says:

"I can recommend Pe-ru-na for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine besides a good tonic."—M. C. Butler.

The only rational way to cure dyspepsia is to remove the catarrh. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh. Pe-ru-na does not produce artificial digestion. It cures catarrh and leaves the stomach to perform digestion in a natural way. This is vastly better and safer than resorting to artificial methods.

Pe-ru-na has cured more cases of dyspepsia than all other remedies combined, simply because it cures catarrh wherever located. If catarrh is located in the head, Pe-ru-na cures it. If catarrh has fastened itself in the throat or bronchial tubes, Pe-ru-na cures it. When catarrh becomes settled in the stomach Pe-ru-na cures it, as well in this location as in any other.

Pe-ru-na is not a simple remedy for dyspepsia. Pe-ru-na is a catarrh remedy. Pe-ru-na cures dyspepsia because it is generally dependent upon catarrh.

H. R. McBride, of Toronto. The banquet was thoroughly enjoyed by the Old Boys, and was considered an excellent finale to the all-round first-class demonstration that has been given in honor
