ANNIVERSARY SERVICE IN ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH

Bishop of Huron Preached Eloquent Sermon on Sunday— West London News.

Special services held in St. George's Anghean Church, West London, on Sunday celebrated the nineteenth anniversary of the church. The services were conducted in the morning by the Rev. Canon Hague, of Memorial Church and in the evening by the Bishop of Huron.

The bishop chose as his text Haggai ii., 7: "I will fill this house with glory, said the Lord of hosts." He was not sure that people realized why they came to church. It was his hope that their so doing was not the result of a habit, but rather in a desire and a hope to meet the Lord Jesus Christ and receive some strength and that God would send his spirit into their hearts. Continuing, the bishop said that the peculiar glory of the Church of England was that it proclaimed the faith in all its fullness, while other bodies have either taken from or added to the faith as set down in the Bible.

A great many reople were inclined to think of the church as a social club where they paid so much and received visits from the rector, and a certain social recognition. If the church were filled with the glory of the Lord, he continued, this could not be, it must be a missionary church The bishop closed with an appeal to his hearers to look carefully needs of the diocese and also to the wider fields of the west and foreign lands.

St. George's Church had had its beginning in a little brick school house about 35 years ago, and two years later a church was erected which is now used as a school room in connection with the church. In 1888 Dr. Sage was appointed to the charge, and on Nov. 23, 1900, the present building was erected.

Thirty-five years ago the first services were held in West London. In the month of March, 1874, Rev. Mr. Davis, now Dean Davis, came from Bayfield to West London, which was at that time called Petersville. en had charge of London, also the one in West London, holding three services each Sunday, and two Sunday schools. The place of worship in the west end was an old brick schoolhouse on the east side of the Wharncliffe road, close to the C. P. R. tracks. It was originally started as a mission to St. Paul's. The building now occupied as a Sunday school was erected in 1876. thew's, had charge of the work unti Canon Newman was appointed in 1881 He continued in the work until 1888 when the present rector, Rev. George prima donna has been associated with. The seat sale will open at the box office tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

B. Sage, D. D., was appointed. The present edifice was opened on Nov, 23, 1890 for services. 1890, for services.
