Jeffries Proves Too Strong Fighter For Ruhlin to Face.

Has His Man Groggy in Fourth And NextsRound Sponge Goes Up.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—Before an assemblage of 10,000 people at the Mechanics' Pavilion, which has been the scene of many struggles in the past, James J. Jeffries, of Los Angles, met Gus Ruhlin, the "Akron Giant," tonight, and fought for the title he has held since his memorable battle with Fitz-simmons.

since his memorable battle with Fitzsimmons.

Never in the history of San Francisco has there been such a crush of humanity at a puglistic event. Hardly had the sun drugged itself beneath the hilltops before the great pavilion began to fill with enthusiastic crowds gathered to witness the championship contest, and long before the first preliminary was called the upper portion of the pavilion was black with spectators. People from all parts, between British Columbia and Mexico, took possession of the high-priced seats early. M. DeYoung, Mayor D. Phelan, Mayor-elect Smitz and almost the entire bench of the county of San Francisco were early at the ringside.

The country of San Francisco were early at the ringside struggle. The odds were 2 to 1, although there were bursts of enthusiasm from either side in which odds were 2 to 1, although there were bursts of enthusiasm from either side in which odds were offered. In great impatience the crowd watted for the appearance of the two gathetons, taking but passive in the crowd watted for the appearance of the two gathetons, taking but passive in the crowd watted for the appearance of the two gathetons, taking but passive in the crowd watted for the appearance of the two gathetons, taking but passive in the crowd watted for the appearance of the two gathetons, the passive in the crowd watted for the appearance of the two gathetons, and puts left to mouth. — Rount 1—Ruhlin ducks left two mouths. Round 5—Ruhlin gets a straight left hopelessly outclassed. SOMETHING ABOUT FAITH

What a great variety of faith cures there must be. Some have faith in so-called divine healers, others in certain doctors and still others in the medicines they use. Every person who has tested Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has faith in them, but faith or no faith they cure just the same, for they act directly and specifically on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and make these organs healthy, active and vigorous. Judging from enormous demand for these pills there must be hosts of people that have faith in them.
