And would we care to be in the same boat with the "colored question" of the South and the "Mexican question" still further down? They talk of Canada wanting in "homogeneity;" where would there be such another "heterogeneity" as a Great United Pan-Republic of North America, with its capital at St. Louis or possibly some burg out in Indian Territory that happened to be the centre of population? sat United Pan-Republic of North a, with its capital at St. Louis or postome burg out in Indian Territory that aed to be the centre of population? who talk of commercial union or any and and Congress will vote of the fakirs is to unload upon Canada North their adulterations, which Mr. Wiman says are too tart for the palates of himself and other rich New Yorkers, "who do not care what they spend upon their living." they have enough on hand to keep them occu-yied for another hundred years without going outside of their own troubles.

gainst the Dominion and in favor of provin-cial powers, it is the bounden duty of all true "Liberals" to rejoice, because a victory has been gained for the cause of "Reform." If these mistaken Liberals of ours had a better tanding of what these victories for the provinces mean, they would not so much rejoice at the prospect. The truth is that the victories at which the partisans of provincial rights are so elated are, for the most part, calculated to work injustice to Ontario. And the robbery work injustice to Ontario. And the robbery is largely done in the name of economy, liberty and provincial rights. The people of Ontario will yet bitterly rue the folly with which a majority of them thought that to cut down Dominion powers and to exaggerate those of the provinces was to lay deep and wide the foundations of political Liberalism in bountry.

Henry George and John Swinton were once great friends, but when they meet now in the streets of New York they pass by without speaking. Swinton sank the savings of a lifetime in a labor newspaper, and is again a poor man, but George, who was but lately poor, is now rich and on top of the heap. In ability the men are well matched, but if there be such a thing as luck George is the luckier, though there be those who think that he is merely the craftier and more selfish.

This is not a conference of hostile or even independent powers, and therefore there need surely be no secret diplomatio negotiations. Let us rather make the whole business as public as possible: surely to this there can be no objection. And one point there is regarding which, in the interests of justice to Ontario, it is particularly necessary that full information should be given.

Among other things we should like to see a statement of the expenditures which in Outario are paid out of municipal taxation, but which in the other provinces are paid out of the provincial treasury. Merely to publish the truth on this point would make it clear to everybody what should be done to make right what is wrong. We must suppose beforeshead.

Dut bloody contest of three rounds was fought. The fight began at 5.20 and lasted 15 minutes. The men wore thin gloves with the figures cut off, and might as well have forght with bare knuckles. The first round was simply sparring. The second round was hotly contested. Nevitt struck Dempsey a stunning blow in the temple breaking his own hand. The two men clinched again and again, but were separated. The round ended in Nevitts receiving a terrible blow in the right side.

The third round was the bloodlest of all. Nevitt did little fighting and acted mainly on the defensive. His nose was broken and his right eye badly battered by Dempsey. He also received a bad cut in the head. The round closed by Dempsey's knocking him out of the ring. Nevitt being unable to rise Dempsey was declared the winner. The match was for $50 as side and gate money. Nevitt was so badly punished that he became seriously ill, and had to be taken home in a carriage from the boat. He is 24 years old and weighs 125 lbs., and has till lately been in the employ of the Electric Light Company.

The second deposit of $300 in the $2000 prize fight between Tom Henry and Johnny Reagan was posted at New York yesterday. Two hundred dollars a side was posted at the time the match was made, and $500 a side will be put up with the final stakeholder on July 25. The battle will be fought within 350 miles of Gotham in about three weeks, and it is thought among sporting men that it will be one of the most desperate seen in years. Reagan is the puglist who recently defeated Jack Files, and Henry has a good record in the ring.

Mr. Kent objected to this way of interpreting the witness' evidence, but His Honor held that it was necessary to ascertain the condition in which the engines were found by the experts. He asked if they had found it necessary to give the engine an overhauling. Witness explained that it was necessary. Had they put the engine in motion as it was, there was no doubt that it would break down in a very short time, and the repairs they had effected were necessary to enable them to form an opinion as to her capabilities.
