"Othello" At the Gra nd.

There was a fair attendance at the Grand last night at the preduction of "Othello." At Downing is not so strong is "Othello" as in other roles. Here his want of passion is too noticeable. The same fault may be found with Miss Blair. For his his part warmth of religion and genuine good taste which promise for him a bright tattur. He has once of the stagy delivery and conventional, awkward per in the speech of some of the other members of the company. And he never betrays himself by an awkward gesture or ungalily action.

Grand Opera House last evening. For the first time this season every seat in the house was occupied and every inch of standing room taken, and each spectator gave his or her most hearty and vociferous approval to the play. The piece is certainly one of the best of its kind on the road. The story is interesting and graphically told. Sensational and exciting incidents are naturally introduced, and these exciting periods are presented with a vim and/a zest that made the emotional audience wild with excitement. The members of the company are good, Miss Carrie Eizer, who has a semisoubrat part, being especially clever. At the Academy all next week.

"Holtum," the cannon ball king, will be the great attraction at the Musse the com-ing week. That a cannon ball weighing 21 pounds fired from a cannon charged with a pounds fired from a cannon charged with a heavy load of powder can be caught in the hands will be positively proven by "Holtum" during his stay in this city. He is the only man in the world that is attempting a feat so dangerous and he offers $500 to any person living that will each the same ball with the same charge of powder that he does. He is a mest powerful man and juggles cannon blass weighing from 30 to 60 pounds His performance is positively one of the greatest and most starting that has ever been witnessed at this popular house. In the same hall will be seen "Unzie," the aboriginal Australian, and Kokina, the only lady

lemy and Residence THE HORSE NOT IN IT. TORONTO

The result of our first week's sale of the Montreal Bankrupt Stock has been most phenomenal. Merchants generally talk of dull trade and scarcity of money. Our selling experience this week lead us to an adverse opinion. From the countless numbers of customers (actual buyers) who have already attended our sale, the great quantities of goods sold, and the large cash receipts up to date, we are convinced that there is still plenty of money in Toronto. The lady shop-pers of the Queen City invariably exercise sound sense and good judgment in the matter of dry goods buying, and know well the value of a bargain when they see it, and are quick to spend their money when such money-saving opportunities occur as we are now offering. The daily cash receipts in our Silk and Dress Goods Departments, Staple and Housefurnishings Departments, Ladies' Underwear and Hosiery and Glove Departments, Corsets, Notions and Lace Departments and Mantle and Mantle Cloth Departments have more than doubled our expectations, which is further proof that we have pleased our customers, and many of the most fastidious buyers, both with quality of goods and prices.

Notwithstanding the success already achieved, we are determined to double the record next week--double the inducements-double the quantity of bargains and sell double the amount of goods-and we know we can do it.

On MONDAY MORNING we will exhibit on our counters, introduction tables, and in the basement many extraordinary bargain offerings in every class of dry goods suitable for every class of peopleand we defy competition, as we feel assured that no house in the trade, either wholesale or retail, can compete with our prices. Sale opens each morning at 10 o'clock sharp and closes at 5 o'clock p.m.
