Fifty-five Years Married

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Metcalfe, residents of Virginia, Penn., many years ago residents of Bosanquet township, will celebrate the fifty-fifth anniversary of their wedding this month.

Fifty-five years ago Robert Metcalfe and Cyphonia Wesover plighted their troth and were wedded. It was April 27, 1862, in Bosanquet township, Lambton county, Ontario, they were married. Neither at that time had reached the age of 20. Pretty soon, in Virginia, fifty-five years later, surrounded by their children and children in law, grandchildren and great grandchildren and hosts of friends, they will observe a wedding anniversary five years beyond the fiftieth.

On their 55th wedding day many of their relatives and friends will greet this "young" couple and extend genuinely hearty congratulations.

Probably some of our older readers will remember Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe.

is out, but it certainly will take a long time to get over the delight in the possession of this fence collar, which by rights is only an added attraction to the newest of the new—the peplum-blouse costume. This one can't make up its mind whether its pockets belong to its belt or the belt to its pockets, but it is perfectly sure that its back entrance is quite fascinating. The chief requirements of the skirt are that it shall be simple, with no fullness at the top. The blouse can be made of satin, charmeuse, gros de Londres, taffeta or crêpe de Chine.
