Church of Scotland. We learn from the "Colonial Advocate", that the Trustees and members of St. Andrew's Church, in this city, have resolved to increase the stipend of their resident Minister to £500 per annum, and that an offer has been made to the Rev. Mr. Gilchrist, who is now officiating for Mr. Halkot, to accept of the appointment, but that it has been declined to the great regret of the congregation. Mr. Gilchrist, says the Advocate, has a fine charge at home in Fifeshire, to which he is attached, and they to him, he said, a consideration of no weight in the scale of his decision.—New Brunswick.

NEWFOUNDLAND.—The reports from all the fishing stations are highly satisfactory. The grain and potato crops promise a rich return. Typhus fever is prevailing among the inhabi- tants, having been introduced by emigrants from the old country.
