ALBANY.

The ladies of the W. M. A. S., together with other sisters of the church gave a Missionary Tea at the home of the President, Mrs. Phineas Whitman, on Wednesday, Jan. 14th. A brief but interesting program was rendered consisting of music, original readings and recitations. History of the society was read by the secretary, showing that altogether the sum of $215 had been raised for missions since its organization in 1885. At the close of the meeting a collection of five dollars was taken for home missions.

The friends of Rev. Arthur Whitman will be glad to know that his wife and The ladies of the W. M. A. S., to-

MEETING OF ANNAPOLIS CO. FARMERS'

The full minutes of this very profare giving here a few of the more important issues of the meetings and work of the executive.

As a result of a delegation to the County Council on Tuesday, Jan. 13, that body voted to assume one half of any deficit that may accrue in holding an exhibition in 1903. The people of Bridgetown will no doubt authorize the Town Council to assume the other half as a circulated petition to that effect was well signed here last week.

Our representative in the Local House, Hon. J. W. Longley, has promised to do all in his power to obtain the required grant of five hundred dollars. In view of all this we have reason to hope that the County will hold an exhibition next Autumn.

It will thus be seen that the Lord's Day Alliance is simply an organization of Christian people, with a view to successfully resisting inroads upon the Day of Rest. Let it be carefully noted that the Alliance seeks to promote the right or Christian observance of the Lord's Day only by educational the control by th blue with hat to match. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. N. Parry, in the presence of a few relatives and friends, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ward drove to the home of the of the Lord's Day only by educational means. It does not seek to coerce by law any one to religiously observe the Lord's Day. Every individual must decide for himself how he will spend the Rest Day. But the Alliance recognizes that the liberty to rest, and the opportunity to worship God, can only be secured to all by the law of rest for all classes in the community. As Horace Greely said: "The liberty of rest for each demands the law of rest for each demands the law of rest for each demands the law of rest for preserving by law to every in-also the burning questions of the day in this connection, but it is hoped this may be remedied in some measure at the next Convention.

You will be anxious to hear a word or two as to our work locally. I may say at once that we have not accomplished all we had hoped or even that of which at one time we had fair promise. But this is not due to lack of effort. Men have not kept faith with us, and thus far we have hesitated to invoke the law, not, mark you, for want of right or power, but because we have hoped that milder counsels might yet prevail. There is no doubt the law is on our side, but we are still hoping moral suasion will preclude the necessity of an appeal to it.

We have not thought it to be our work to appeal individually to those who encourage Sunday labor, beyond appeals made from the various pulpits, but we would respectfully suggests to them that absolutely no need exists in a town of the size of Bridgetown (or in any) for Sunday labor.

Before leaving local matters may I advert to a subject, which, although not actually within the province of the L. D. A., yet is very near to it. I refer to the late hour at which we find shops open on Saturday evenings. From conversations I have had with business men I am sure they, one and BUSION, Jan. 15.—Mr. Marconi, the inventor of wireless telegraphy, arrived here to-night from Sydney, C. Mr. Marconi was in good spirits after his somewhat tedious trip from Cape Breton, and appeared to be very confident of his ability to transmit across the Atlantic a wireless compunication. business men I am sure they, one and all, would welcome reform in this matter. But the reform must be inaugurated by the people. What a splendid thing then if the members of this Alling them is the members of this Alling them. hdent of his ability to transmit across the Atlantic a wireless communication from President Roosevelt to King Edward. thing then if the members of this Alliance made it a rule to get all shopping done before, say 9.30 on Saturday evenings, and then endeavor to persuade their friends to do the same. It would welcome such a practice. It would welcome such a practice of the Lord's Day.

For the work of the Alliance at large I must refer you to our quarterly leaflet, "The Lord's Day Advocate," which I understand, each member receives regularly. By this you will see that much is being done in various parts of the Dominion to resist the encroachments upon the weekly Rest. Day, and I count it a splendid privilege that we living here in Bridgetown are enabled through our membership in the L. D. A. to do something morally and financially to this end. Let us never forget that we are members, not merely of a local organization but of an Alliance that has for its object the benefit of every grade and member of Society.

We purpose this year, as last, soliciting support by personal canvass, and I heartily commend the aims and objects not to present members only, but also to our citizens at large.
