OBITUARY. At Tarbrook Mills, Annapolis Co., Bro. Charles Inglis Neely, son of Jacob and Wolten Neely, born at Medonvale, on Oct. 17th, 1838, and passed away on September 18, 1906. Bro. Neely was converted and joined the Baptist church at Trenton under the late Rev. Charles Tupper, D. D. at the early age of 13 years. Later he replaced his membership in the Nicotux Baptist church of which he remained a faithful and devoted member until the time of his departure. Our brother was one of a family of ten boys and one girl, one of the brothers being the late Rev. John Neely, of beloved memory. Five brothers still survive to mourn their loss. Bro. Neely was a great sufferer for nearly three years, but he bore his afflictions with a sweet and loving Christian spirit never murmuring or complaining as to his Father's will. Our brother possessed a very sweet and rich voice for singing and was early in his fifteenth year as a member of the choir. He was passionately fond of the old hymns which made his soul vibrate with the love of God. The testimony of his neighbors is expressed in the following words: "He was always a consistent Christian, honest and obliging in all his dealings, ready by day and night to help them in trouble." The funeral was very largely attended, conducted by Pastor, C. H. Havestock, assisted by Bro. S. P. McTear, of Trenton. Our brother leaves to mourn a devoted wife, two sons and two daughters. Three of the children are members of the church. We devoutly sympathize with the stricken wife and family whose wounded hearts the Saviour alone can comfort.—Con.

TUPPERVILLE. William Borden is leading a car of apples for Miller & Co. Bridgetown. The Packet passed through here on Monday on her way to Bridgetown to take in freight for St. John and the load was heavy Tuesday and took in freight for St. John. The farmers are pretty well through with their harvesting and are starting in their fall ploughing. Rev. Mr. Lynglie preached here on Sunday p.m. The froit crop this year in this part of the valley did not turn out half a crop.

PARADISE WEST. Miss Maria Lyons returned home some time ago from Annapolis where she has been visiting relatives. Owen Borden returned to his home in Exton last week, after spending some weeks with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. W. Dunn, of Washington State, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dargie the past week. Mr. and Mrs. B. Saunders entertained a number of friends on the 21st. Frank Baulman was successful in obtaining a fine mouse last week. Mrs. S. Danick is very ill at the home of her son, C. Danick. Mrs. E. Sanford and Mrs. F. Durbin entertained friends last week. The last shoot of the season was held on Saturday on the Paradise range.

LOWER GRANVILLE. John Robbidge, Jr., went to Lynn, Mass., on Saturday, and Harold Farnsworth the previous Wednesday. The dinner party held at the residence of Alfred Young on Monday evening realized $14 towards the funds of the Episcopal church. B. W. Shadon returned from a business trip to Halifax on Saturday. A. Porter returned on Saturday from an exceedingly pleasant visit to New York, Boston and Lynn, Mass. The trip to Yarmouth was a very rough one, the Prince George being five hours late in arriving.

A Dramatic Suicide. Treves, British Prussia, Nov. 3.—While several squads of the Twenty-ninth Regiment of Infantry were exercising in a field today undergoing instruction with blank cartridges, in how to use their rifles on the firing line, a sergeant of one squad fell dead with four bullets through his breast. It developed that he had himself loaded the rifles of the squad with ball cartridges and directed the recruits to aim at his breast and pull the triggers when he exclaimed, "His Majesty, hurrah." The cause of the sergeant's suicide has not been ascertained.

Bear River and Western Annapolis

Mrs. Everett Colley, of West Somerville, Mass., with her two boys spent a week here with her uncle Outhis White and other friends. Fred Farnsworth has returned to Halifax. Miss Belle Longmire, of Granville, has been visiting at Mrs. Turple's. Miss Lena Chute is at Mt. Hanley for a time. Miss Jessie and Ethel White spent a few days recently with friends at Parker's Cove. Mrs. Enos Munroe has returned from a visit to friends at Lawrenceport and North Williamstown.

HAMPTON. Flashlight Division held its twenty-second anniversary on Saturday evening last. About twenty-five members were present, including two charter members, E. B. Foster and Norman Millsby.

PAY SIDE. Frank Farnsworth has recently raised his house and trowed it round, and given it a thorough repainting. John E. Farnsworth of Hampton had charge of the work.

E. D. Smith has recently been to Bridgetown making and hanging a windshield for the schooner Packet. Although seventy-eight years of age he was able to complete the work satisfactorily. This is considered the most difficult work in shipbuilding.

Edwardsworth, of Halifax, visited his parents quite recently. A Convict's Temperance Sermon. Frank Vermette, a French-Canadian, just committed to the Michigan State penitentiary for theft, is 28 years old. He has been in the penitentiary for about a year. He was sentenced for burglary. He crossed the border into the United States, intending to go to Seattle and start afresh where no one would know him. But he detected the "old pal," and began to drink. Then he started out to pay a farewell visit to my friends, and the result was that I was drunk over a month. I stole a horse and buggy that I had no more use for than a mouse has for a fur overcoat; but I stole it. I can look back now and recall a little of the feeling—I took it just like you'd hide a man's hat or put a pin in his chair. I steal when I'm drunk, for the pleasure of the job or to get a little pleasure out of it. It's a kind of dope for me. Let me tell you, I would steal anything that I could get my hands on. The only safe rule is: Don't touch it. Then you're safe and can be respectable.

The "Church Side" of a Man. What is the "Church Side" of a man? If you are a mere man, you will probably give it up as a poser, besides which "How old is Ann?" will be the only question you will be asked; but in any event this story told by The Mitchell Advocate is good enough to reproduce.

As the milliners have now left town after a very busy season, we must relate an experience as told by one of them. A lady walked into her department and found a dress hanging on her hat stand, saying that it had been put on the wrong side. The decorations being on the inside she told the milliner to put it on the proper place. The customer grew haughty and said it didn't make any difference as to the proper place, whether it be the back or front or on the right or left; she wanted her on the wrong side. This position being a new one to the milliner, the lady was asked to explain, when she said her hat had been next to the wall on the left-hand side and that she wasn't going to let her for expensive trimming be changed. It where the congregation couldn't see it. Of course the change was made. "That shall be by and by."

THREE SEA-SONS. The very sails are singing. A song not of the wind. A sea-dance is creeping. Our wake that runs behind.

In all the shining splendour. White moonflower of the sea. There's not a rascal sleeping. For ecstasy of thee.

Under the greenish willow. Wanders a gull's cry. Orleto April up in the world. With morning day goes by.

Out of the virgin quiet. Like an awakening sigh. With the wild, wild heaves. A journeyer am I.

We are the wind's own brothers. Sorrow and joy and I. But thou are the hope of moorrows. That shall be by and by.

All the rest of all the ages. Shimmers in my sea-bird's wing. Flickering above the surges. Of the sea.

All the quiet of the ages. Shimmers in my sea-bird's wing. Where it settles who has the verge. Of the sea.

All the questing soul's heaving. Pent and freed in one white wing. Saying there above the dunes. Of the sea.

—Bliss Carman.

Sandy Pikes—When yer asked de man in de wayside cottage for a drink he offered you some soda. Is that why yer ran so fast, pard? Gritty George—Sure! Offered me some washing soda.

Gunner—There goes old Maj. Redback, the great politician. Guyver—You don't say! And which way is he leaning these days? Gunner—Oh, generally against the hotel bar.

"Have they got a family skeleton?" "I should say so!" "How do you know?" "I saw their eldest daughter in a bathing suit this summer."
