GLAD HE TRIED THE TONIC TREATMENT Through Its Use Strength and Vigor Was Restored.

"To be tired after exertion is natural. Rest and food restore the body to normal after such fatigue. But to be tired all the time is a symptom of an anemic condition that will not be corrected until the blood is built up.

Such an anemic condition is so gradual in its approach and generally so lacking in acute pains that it is often difficult to persuade the sufferer to do anything for it. It is not a condition that corrects itself. If the blood is not enriched the trouble will increase. The nerves will be undernourished and neuralgic pains will follow. Digestive disturbances often result from thin blood, sleep is disturbed and a general breakdown may occur.

Mr. Wilson Johnson, Nineveh, N. S., says: "A few years ago my system was in a badly run down condition. My nerves seemed always on edge, and I found myself so weak that I could hardly do any work. I suffered from headaches and from pains in the back and under the shoulders, and was often so sleepless at night that when morning came I felt as tired as when I went to bed. I was taking medicine all the time, but it was doing me no good. Then I read the testimonial of a man whose condition had been similar to mine, and who strongly recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to give this medicine a fair trial, and when I had taken six boxes I felt much better. I continued taking the pills until I had taken six more boxes, and I can only say I am glad I did so, as I am now enjoying the best of health, and I advise all men who feel run down to give these pills a good trial."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained from any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE LATE CAPT. SPURR

A Prominent Resident of Annapolis County Passed Away Recently

A special telephone message to the MONITOR last Wednesday morning announced the sudden death of Capt. J. D. Spurr which occurred at his home, the Colonial Arms Hotel, Deep Brook, the previous evening. No one ever suspected that the genial captain suffered with heart trouble. He was retiring for the night when Mrs. Spurr heard him fall in his bedroom. When Mrs. Spurr reached him he was unconscious and never regained consciousness. Medical aid was immediately summoned, but before the arrival of Dr. Dismore from Bear River, the Captain was dead. The late John Dittmars Spurr was born at Smith's Cove, December 18th, 1859, and had therefore reached the age of 61 years and three months. He followed the sea from his boyhood up to about fifteen years ago when he retired. He first went to sea with his father, Capt. Wm V. Spurr, making his first voyage to the West Indies in the Bear River brig, Sanval Copel, 300 tons, register loaded with lumber, in 1874—15 years of age. After sailing several years under different masters in the European and South American trade he qualified for his mate's certificate and in due time was awarded a master's certificate. Given command of the brig Delma C., also of Bear River, he was engaged in the West Indian trade until he was shipping a total loss with crew saved. He continued, however, in the West Indian, South American and South African trade. In 1890 he purchased the schooner Iolanthe, 350 tons, and traded for the next ten years between the gulf ports and the West Indies. His business enlarging, he came north and bought the Arona, 600 tons, which he placed in the same trade and was very successful especially during the high freight rates which prevailed during the Spanish-American war. The Arona was the last ship he commanded. Retiring from the sea in 1906 he returned to his home in Deep Brook. In 1911-12 he built the Colonial Arms hotel, one of the largest summer hotels at that time in the maritime provinces, and Deep Brook soon became famous as a summer resort, becoming more popular every season. During the tourist season of 1914 this house was totally destroyed by fire. In 1916 he rebuilt the Colonial Arms, the new house being much smaller than the first one, but just as popular with the American visitors.

He is survived by his widow, who is the daughter of the late Wm. Harding Morse, of West Paradise. His only son is Wm. H. Spurr, at present residing in Deep Brook, and his only daughter is Mrs. Warren Harris, of Annapolis. He also leaves six brothers and three sisters. Three of his brothers live in Deep Brook, one in British Columbia, one in New York (Captain of a New York-Panama line) and one in Yarmouth.

The funeral, which was a Masonic one, and largely attended, took place from his late home Friday afternoon with interment at Clementsport, the service being conducted at the house and at the grave by Rev. A. M. McNinch, pastor of the Baptist church of which the deceased was a member.

THE NEW PROGRAMME

Get the plough and spade and hoe. Get the harrow and the team. Sharpen up the axe and saw. Life is not an idle dream. Plant and sow and dig and delve. This is not a time to shirk. Put your shoulders to the wheel—Everybody go to work—

String the wire and lay the track. Start the motor and the loom. Swing the hammer, ply the pick. Make the arid desert bloom. Blow the whistle, ring the bell. Farmer, lawyer, builder, clerk. With the hands as with the head. Everybody go to work.

GETTING INFORMATION

"Hello! Give me City, one, three noughts." "I beg your pardon?" "Didn't you get it? One, oh, oh, oh, City." "I don't understand you." "I want City, one double nought, nought."

"What?" "One thousand, City. Ten hundred, City. No do you get it?" "Oh, you mean City, one oh, double oh. Why didn't you say so? Line's busy."

THIS WOMAN'S MISERY

Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Remarkable Recovery of Mrs. Church.

Smiths Falls, Ont.—"I suffered with falling of my organs, pains around my heart and in bowels and down my legs, neuralgia in my face and head, and that terrible sinking feeling, I felt that I could not live and would fix my house in order every night so there would be no trouble if I dropped off in the night. My husband went to the druggist to get the best remedy he had and he gave him Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and felt a lot better. I will always recommend the Vegetable Compound, and you can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. J. O. CAURCH, Box 845, Smiths Falls, Ont.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unsurpassed. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills. If there are any complications about which you need advice write in confidence to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Cause of Early Old Age

The celebrated Dr. Michenoff, an authority on early old age, says that it is "caused by poisons generated in the intestine." When your stomach digests food properly it is absorbed without forming poisonous matter. Poisons bring on early old age and premature death. 15 to 20 drops of "Seigel's Syrup" after meals makes your digestion sound.
