NOTES AND COMMENTS

SOME THINGS WE DON'T DO.

WE DON'T lend cuts.
WE DON'T report winter shows who fail to use our business columns.
WE DON'T take renewal subscriptions at less than one dollar each.
WE DON'T try to please everybody and
WE DON'T care who knows it.

SOME THINGS WE DO.

WE do take two new subscriptions for one dollar.
WE do take one old and one new subscription when sent together for one dollar.
WE do all we can to help the shows.
WE do try to treat all fairly.

SOCIETY NOTES.

(A LONG WAY) AFTER SOME OF OUR DAILY CONTENTS.

The Rev. Buff Cochbin was in town to-day and paid this office a pleasant visit. We notice the reverend gentleman still wears his blond whiskers down the sides of his trousers which must cause him some unpleasantness this wet weather.

Mr. L. Brahma is to sing to-night at the annual hen convention. His fine basso-profundo voice will prove one of the attractions of the evening.

We hear that an alliance between the western branches of the families of Mr. B. Minorca and Mrs. B. Leghorn has been arranged and that the motto of the house will be the Volapuk quotation "Eg gsla idwh iley ouw ait."

Mr. W. P. Rock is stated to have just a little more "brass" than is good for him.

THE "BIG" SHOW.

WE are as yet unable to say much regarding the "Ontario" to be held at London, but doubtless Mr. Oke and Mr. Browne will respectively see that our readers are fully informed in December REVIEW. Of course the show under Mr. Browne's care will go with its usual clock-like regularity. The London Poultry and Pet

Stock Association has issued the following manifesto, "Desiring to make the winter exhibition of the Ontario Poultry Association, to be held in this city, January, 1898, the most successful exhibition ever held in Canada, and particularly attractive to the citizens of London, the following resolution was passed unanimously at the last regular meeting, held October 5th, 1897:—'That committees be appointed to solicit subscriptions, the same to be given as special prizes by this Association, independent of the regular prizes given by the Ontario Poultry Society.'"

THE EASTERN ONTARIO SHOW AT CORNWALL THIS YEAR.

We regret to learn that Mr. Gisborne has been laid up owing to an accident but trust ere this reaches REVIEW readers that he may be quite recovered from the effects of a painful fall. He give us the following hints of the forthcoming show:—"We expect to have quite a large show at Cornwall. There was quite a contest between Brockville and Cornwall for the privilege of holding the show but the Brockville men very generously gave way with the understanding that they should have the preference next time provided that they organized a poultry association in the meantime."

TORONTO'S BIG WINTER SHOW.

Preparation for this coming event is well under way and if the anticipations of the large membership are realized a rousing big entry will be the result. Mr. Durston, the Secretary of the Association, supplies us with the following information:—"The show committee met in Temperance Hall, on Monday, 18th Oct., 1897, the President, Mr. Essex in the chair. The prize list was compiled. Mr. Bertie was proposed as judge of canaries and cage birds. Mr. Jarvis is one of the judges on poultry, the second judge has not yet been decided upon. Mr. Johnson will officiate on the pigeons and pet stock."
