WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 20, 1886.

We are informed that cortain Centlemen have communeed a heen canvass in this District, for the approaching election, and we must say, that such liaste to beat a march ahead, on the unthinking portion of the constituency, affords no ovidence of their fitness for office; on the contrary, we would say, that such conduct ought to disquality them forever, from enjoying the confidence and suffrages of a free people. The Freeholders will please recollect, that, it is intended as soon as the fate of the County Division Bill 18 known, to call a Public Moeting in the Court house, for the purpose of nominating as many as will be required for Representatives in the next House of Assembly. In the mean time, it would be wise, as a I reliminary stop, to hold Township Meetings, for the purpose of agreeing on Caudidates, to be brought forward at the General Meeting, and also to warn and fortify the Electors against committing themselves ! in giving pledges of support to any one, however high his pretensions may be. By this mode of procedure, the most popular and worthy Representatives will be secured, the horrors of a contested election will be avoided, and those who have already served the pubhe faithfully, will not be overlooked. We have no desire to see the scenes of dissipation, riot, and bloodshed of 1830, renewed in 1836, to gratify every Johnny Raw, who may fancy himself qualified for a seat in the Legislature.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

London dates to the 25th February have reached us by way of the United States. A new French Ministry had been formed; M Thiers is at the head of the new Cabinet. Fieschi and his two associates in crime, Morey and Pepin had been executed.

Heavy gales, attended with much damage to property and loss of life, had occurred in various parts of England. - All Branches of Trade continued to prosper. - A rupture between Great Britain and Russia, was spoken of in the best informed circles -The select Committee of the House of Commons appointed to inquire into the Carlow Election were sitting with closed doors. Nothing had transpired of the result of their investigations.

In Upper Canada, the change of the Executive had produced a great public meeting at Toronto, at which upwards of fifteen hundred persons were present; a string of Resolutions were passed highly condemnatory of the conduct of his Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head On the following Tuesday, (22d March,) the citizens again assembled, and waited on his Excellency with an Address based on the Resolutions Both Upper and Lower Canada continue in a state of great agitation. At a public meeting held in Montreal the Newspapers of that city were voted to be a nuisance.

SPAIN -The cause of the Queen, which has long been on the wane, and never was popular, has now become desperate; the Carliels seem to prosper every- be paid, and suitable boarding and lodging furnished where. A more efficient intervention or the part of in the House. The applicant must be qualified to France is expected, unless prevented by the known aversion of the King.

Tit. Sanson.-We are happy to announce that this harbour is now clear of ice, and there is at present very little on the coast to impede navigation. We have every prospect of an early spring.

PROSPECTUS

THE SECOND VOLUME OF THE EUROPEAN.

Published weekly, at New York. J M. More, Editor. THE very flattering reception which the first vol.

of the European met with, has induced the proprietor to make various improvements in the second volume, commencing March 12th, 1836.

As the improvements which have been made in the European are merely connected with its mechanical department, and the quality of the paper, we subjoin the prospectus which was issued for the first volume.

The objects of the paper are to keep up a more strict term of intimacy between this country and Europo than at present exists; not morely by publishing foreign intolligence, but by defending foreigners from insults, to which we have been occal anally subjected through the illiberality of a portion of the press, and by fairly advocating our claims to the pative American, who, if he discards all prejudice in the examination, cannot full to acknowledge them.

As Ireland has been the most slandered nation, so shall our columns be more devoted to it than to any other. In the European, Irishmen will, at all events, have one uncompromising friend, whose voice shall never be suppressed while the tongue of slander, or the hand of oppression, is raised against them or their glorious country.

It shall be one of our constant endeavours to conciliate the friendship of the native American; and if we do this in a straight forward and independent man-ner, we know he will like us all the better.

The European will be a literary, as well as a political and general foreign and demestic, newspaper; so that, when the reader grows tired of a parliamentary debate, or a discussion on the merits of the different candidates at election times, he can turn to another page and refresh himself with a romance, a sonnet, a theatrical critique, or a literary notice.

We publish the paper at the almost nominal price of two dollars a-year, in order to give it a more genural circulation than it might otherwise command; but we can assure subscribers that, if a devotion to their interests can be of any avail, we will be behind our contemporaries in nothing but the price alone.

Orders for the paper, addressed to the editor through the Post Office, will be punctually attended to.

As the very limited price of the European will not afford the expense of travelling agents, country subscribers ordering the paper, are requested in all cases to send the money in advance for one year.

Communications must be post paid. Any person furnishing five subscribers entitles himself to a copy of the paper for one year. New York, March 12, 1836.

Subscribers' names for the European will be received at the BEE OFFICE.
