THE OXFORD BIBLE FOR TEACHERS.

10/13
THE additional matter has been carefully revised and enlarged from time to time by Dr. Stubbs, Bishop of Chester; Dr. Edwin Palmer, Archdeacon of Oxford; Dr. Angus and other eminent scholars. The scientific information was prepared under the supervision of Professors Rolleston, Westwood, Lawson and Earle—names of the highest authority in their several departments.

IT IS NOW ISSUED IN TWELVE SIZES,
With the Text arranged in each so as to correspond page for page with all the others.

The Rev. Principal Cunningham, D.D., LL.D.

"I have never seen anything more perfect. The Helps contain a vast amount of useful and interesting knowledge."

The Rev. Donald Macleod, D.D.

"The Helps form, in my opinion, quite an unrivalled reference book. I can honestly say that I have been surprised at the amount and accuracy of the information which is here so admirably arranged, section after section."

The Rev. A. K. H. Boyd, D.D.

"All the helps a preacher or teacher can need for the study of the Bible were never before brought together in such a compendious form."

The Rev. J. Marshall Lang, D.D.

"The Helps are quite a thesaurus of most valuable information, most distinctly arranged and most succinctly expressed. I cannot conceive a more admirable vade mecum for Clergyman, Teacher, indeed for every Student of the Bible, than the OXFORD BIBLE FOR TEACHERS."

AN ACCOUNT OF MISSIONARY SUCCESS IN FORMOSA.

Published in London 1860, and now reprinted with copious Notes of Recent Work in the Island. By the Rev. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, F.R.G.S., English Presbyterian Mission, Taiwanfoo.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"A very interesting and valuable contribution to the literature of Missions."—British Weekly.

"It ought to possess great attraction for all friends of Protestant mission work."—Bookseller.

"The copious appendices include a long and most interesting account of Mr. Campbell's own experience of the island. The work has much of the interest of a book of travel."—Scotsman.

"There is much information on the present condition of the aborigines of Formosa to be gathered from it, and many of the stories Mr. Campbell tells of these strange people or peoples are of very considerable interest to the general public."—London and China Telegraph.

"There is an unostentatious charm about the style in which these two volumes are written which carries the reader from page to page with a growing sympathy for such faithful service, and any library will be the richer by the possession of so valuable a work."—Illustrated Missionary News.

"The story of recent endeavour is one of encouraging success it being quite delightful to read that the Formosans have now themselves undertaken mission work in the Pescadore Group. Portraits of worthies of the past, and heroes of the present, add to the attractiveness of this stirring chapter of missionary history."—Christian.
