MCGILL NORMAL SCHOOL 32 BELMONT STREET, MONTREAL.

THIS Institution, under the joint control of the Honorable the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the Province of Quebec and the Corporation of McGill University, is intended to give a thorough training to Protestant teachers.

The complete course extends over a period of three annual sessions of nine months each—an Elementary School Diploma being obtained at the close of the first session, a Model School Diploma at the close of the second, and an Academy Diploma at the close of the third. All these Diplomas are valid as authorizations to teach in any part of the Province of Quebec, without limitation of time.

None are admitted to the School but those who intend to devote themselves to teaching in the Province of Quebec for at least three years. To such persons, however, the advantages of the School are free of charge, and those who are successful in getting Diplomas receive, at the close of the session, a sum not exceeding $36 in aid of their board, and, if they reside more than ninety miles from Montreal, a small additional sum towards their travelling expenses.

Admission to the School is by examination only. The conditions of admission to the higher classes may be learned by consulting the Prospectus of the School. Candidates for admission to the Class of the First Year must be able to parse correctly a simple English sentence; must know the Continents, greater Islands, Peninsulas, and Mountains, the Oceans, Seas, larger Guifs, Bays, Straits, Lakes and Rivers, and the chief political divisions and most important Cities of the world; must write neatly a Dictation from any School Reader, with no more than five per cent. of mistakes in spelling, in the use of capitals and in the division of words into syllables; and must be able to work correctly examples in the simple rules of arithmetic and in fractions.

The next session of the School opens September 1st, 1888. Names of candidates will be enrolled on the 1st and 2nd days of the month, examinations will be held on the 3rd, successful candidates will be received and lectures will commence on the 4th.

Forms of application, to be partially filled at the places of residence of candidates, and copies of the Prospectus of the School, may be obtained by application to the Principal, Dr. Robins. When issued, the Prospectus of the School for 1888 will be sent to every Protestant minister of Quebec, as far as addresses are attainable.
