THOMAS WYLIE.

Dr. Thomas Wylie died at his home, 685 Spadina Ave., Toronto, on 25th June, after an illness of two months. He had not been in robust health for a period of about one year, but was only confined to his home for eight weeks. He died from a severe and progressive form of anæmia. He is survived by his widow, who is in poor health.

Dr. Wylie was born in Toronto on 4th June, 1841. His parents moved to Victoria county and young Wylie grew up in the township of Maraposa. After teaching school for four years, he graduated in medicine from the University of Victoria College in 1866. For some time he practised in Manilla and Duntroon; later on he removed to Stayner,
