

"There is none that doeth good, no, not one."

Psalm xiv. 3.

OUTLINES OF BIBLE STUDY

FROM THE
INTERNATIONAL LESSONS.

BY ALF. SANDHAM.

CROSSING JORDAN.—Joshua iii.

Illustrative of the Gospel.

1. It was a strange way.

Acts xvii. 18-20.

The Israelites did not expect such an opening.

2. It was a new way.

Heb. x. 20.

Jordan was never crossed in that way before.

3. It was an easy way.

Eph. ii. 8, 9.

No works were needed. No rafts to be constructed. No bridges to be erected.

4. It was a short way.

John vi. 47.

There was no drifting down with a current. They went straight over. (v. 16.)

5. It was a safe way.

John x. 28.

All the people passed clean over. (v. 17.)

6. It was a divinely appointed way.

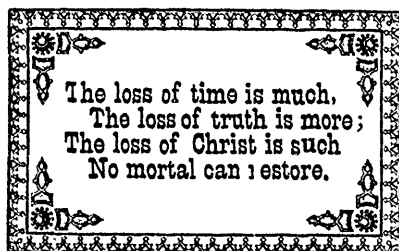

John iii. 16.

Joshua did not devise it, nor Israel ask for it. (vs. 7, 8.)

7. It was the only way.

Acts iv. 12.

If they had refused to accept it, they could not have crossed Jordan.

ALF. SANDHAM,
Gen. Sec.

THERE is no such thing as a menial office, when you put a true man into it. A menial office is an office with a mean man in it; and it makes no difference whether it is a king's office or a scavenger's office.

FOLLY AND DANGER.

To seek healing of soul from duties, instead of the blood of Christ, is taking poison to cure the disease.

"If thou seek Him He will be found of thee."

1 Chron. xxviii. 9.
