

May 22
G. III. I
Sub. 8, 15, 17, 18, 19, 22

THE QUEBEC STAR

A Weekly English and French Comic Paper.

Vol. I.—No. 27.

QUEBEC, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1876.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

VERY IMPORTANT.

We understand that J. M.—ho is intended to take out a very large raft of timber this winter: he has purchased all the Limits from spencer wood to Cap Rouge, I believe Mr. Charlesonous the merchant will furnish him, that is if he can get it from the bank, very fuc man that T.V.M.

NOTICE.

Wanted to borrow for five years 2500 dollars, good interest will be paid at the expiration of the note or one day after.

JOHN NELL.

Wanted, a good smart bar keeper, to attend my restaurant in Chicago, good board and good wages given to a smart young man, application to be made to

GEO. LANGLOIS,
Proprietor.

JOE LAFLAMME,
G. Trunk depot.

There is a certain insurance agent in Lower Town, he is so stuck up with ignorant pride, that people not knowing him would think he is somebody. I would advise him to be less stuck up for the future, or else his pedigree will appear in full.

FLUKES.

There will be a Lecture delivered at Ottawa, by the right Hon. Lorne McDougal, M.P., on the first of December. Subject: The finances of the country, and how the money is squandered paying members 1,000 dollars for five or six weeks, especially the know-nothings, all for doing nothing, only trying to injure better men than themselves.

Mr. Shortlegs, M.P., will deliver a lecture on the sappers bridge, Ottawa, on the 26th of November. Subject: How to save money, while in Quebec, by boarding on his raft, and not at the St. Louis Hotel.

GROGGERMT.

STARR WANTS TO KNOW.

Were he will find the money Shavers hou' are so fond of investing in Lift Insurance policies as he knows several hard Beets that dont care for wiskey but will take a few spondulick' to suport nature. We have heard that their is a firm in St. Roch styled T V J L ready to do business

BRANDY ON HAND.

CONCERT.

By the Cackting Club on the pinio cost $1000, due notice in a next number.
St Roch.

The Starr Boys got a great Fright the other day they thought that the Sub. Chief of had arrived from Red River by order of Admiral Blake to give the Liberals and De Sallabery Soldiers a Lesson on Marchal Music, we hope that our Soldiers wont turn their colour from Blue to red although rouges is the thing with the upper House Land Sweep Gents ever Blue.

OLD ENGLAND.

We feel sorry for the loss of that nice Gentleman Runner, connected with our city Hotels, by the death of a fine horse which cost him £30 not many days ago.

STONEHAM DANCE.

Official in hotels and bar rooms ought to be civil to partys asking information about strangers as they are public servants and not forgot what they have been because they old Higher places then Boot blacks but he know where they live in day time and where they spend their nights.

LOOK OUT

We understand that M. Cormikssy is intended to open a school, near the Toll Gate, this winter, he will not be able to take more than 20 pupils in his Latin Classes. Terms, 15 dollars per Quarter, payable in advance. References kindly permitted to the following gentlemen:

PUNCAN ROSS,
OLD TOM SNOBB.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Miller of St. Saviour went to the Island a few days ago in order to hunt Muskrats and other game, in travelling along with his dog, Mr. Miller got on top of a mud bank when to and behold the mud bank sunk down, Mr. Miller had the presence of mind to throw himself on all fours, he got hold of the tail of his dog and was dragged out, wonderful Dog, that Dog of Mr. Millers.

FROM SNEAUCY.

IMPORTS PER G. TRUNK.—One box sardines, to D. M.; one tobacco cutter, to J. L.; 2 pepper boxes, to J. T.; one red herring, to W. C.; two boiled eggs, to A. St. Lawrence Doeks; one piece of tarred rope, to B. B.; one moccasin, to P. D.; one red bonnet, to A. M.; one pair tongs to J. R.; one bar soap, to F. L.; one eagle, one porpuaine, to H. H.; one gill of cod Lever oil, W. C. Y.

We understand that our old friend Mr. Rich McConnell will deliver a lecture, subject the Cullers office, showing how the old Lumber men were treated before the office was established, and how fortunate the present men are to have said office to give them Justice, this Lecture will be delivered at Ottawa, due notice will be given.

S. BUCKLY.

There is a certain little Norwegian smoker, he wears Buckskins breeches and Long boots, I would strongly advise him to keep out of the suburbs or else the Police will be on his track shortly, and you know the result it will be, 10 dollars or one month, take care.

F. CACKLER.

It is currently reported that a duel will take place shortly, one of the Gentlemen is engaged in a merchants Lumber establishment, the other is belonging to a government office, the weapons choosen are two Flails furnished by

LENAMENLYSRES.