A metropolitan paper publishes the following: "Lost, yesterday, a small blue morocco pocket-book, containing a variety of papers—among the rest a tailor's bill for £20. Any person finding the same will please pay the bill, and nothing more will be said."

"The first step towards wealth," says an exchange, "is the choice of a good wife." "And the first step towards securing a good wife is the possession of great wealth," says another. Here we have one of those good rules which work prettily both ways.

"Did you ever break the record?" asked a gentleman of a bicyclist. "No," responded the wheelman; "but I broke my right arm last year, broke my watch a week ago, broke my machine twice, and last night I came near breaking my neck. I may break the record next."

Perkins—"And so you're going to the fancy dress ball? What costume are you going to wear?" Smart Alec—"I think I'll borrow your summer suit and go as a tramp." Perkins—"I guess I'll put on your diagonal Prince Albert and go as a looking-glass."—Puck.

Miss Clara (to Featherly, who is making an evening call): "Poor little Bobby swallowed a penny to-day, and we've all been so much worried about it." Featherly (somewhat at a loss for words of encouragement): "Oh, I—er—wouldn't worry, Miss Clara, a penny is not much."—Harper's Bazaar.

THE BELLE OF THE "CONVERSAT."

The above subject was a very deep one last Friday eve. There were gentlemen present who wished to see, and thought the honor ought to be carried off by their special friends; but it seemed to be very generally admitted that a dark lady, with a handsome and striking figure, large, luminous dark eyes was the favourite. She was faultlessly attired and wore a handsome pair of diamond ear-rings with lace pin to match.

It was whispered around she bought the jewellery at Trowern's, 171 Yonge st., who always keeps a well regulated stock of the finest gold and silver jewellery. He already has a large patronage from the students and looks forward to a continuance and increase of the same, giving very liberal bargains to the "boys" of the "Varsity."
