

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA.

BILL 204.

An Act to amend the Trade Mark and Design Act.

R.S., c. 71;
1919, c. 64;
1923, c. 28.

HIS Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Definitions.

1. Section four of the Trade Mark and Design Act, chapter seventy-one of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, is amended by inserting the following paragraphs immediately after paragraph (b) of section four:— 5

“Labour union” or “union.”

“(c) ‘labour union’ or ‘union’ means any organization of employees engaged in the manufacture or production of goods formed for the purpose of regulating the relations between employers and employees; 10

“Label.”

“(d) ‘label’ means mark, term, design, emblem, figure, sign, seal, stamp, diagram, ticket, device or form of advertisement registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act.” 15

What shall be deemed to be trade marks.

2. Section five of the said Act is amended by adding thereto the following subsections:

Union to be considered proprietor of certain labels.

“(2) Any label heretofore adopted or used or hereafter adopted and used by any labour union to designate, make known, or distinguish any goods, wares, merchandise, or other product of labour as having been made, manufactured, produced or prepared by such labour union, may be registered for the exclusive use of the union registering it in the manner herein provided; and the said union shall, for the purposes of this Act, be considered the proprietor of such label. 20 25

Consent of owner of goods.

“(3) No label shall be put or placed upon any goods, wares, merchandise, or other product of labour without the consent of the owner or proprietor of such goods, wares, merchandise, or other products of labour first had and obtained.” 30
