The Speaker: Order, please. My colleagues, I want you to know that I was prepared to take all of these votes this afternoon. I practised for two hours before coming in. Too bad we cannot take all the votes. Until the next time.

It being 17.55 p.m. the House will now proceed to the consideration of Private Members' Business as listed on today's Order Paper.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

[Translation]

Mr. Gaston Péloquin (Brome—Missisquoi): Madam Speaker, there have been discussions among parties and I now seek unanimous consent for the motion standing in my name, motion M-172, presently in ninth place on the order of priority of Private Members' Business, to be withdrawn. This motion is no longer relevant in light of recent developments in the business community.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Maheu): The House has heard the hon. member's request. Is there unanimous consent?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

(Motion withdrawn.)

[English]

Mr. Arseneault: Madam Speaker, seeing that under Private Members' Business one of the bills on the order of priority has been withdrawn and there normally are ten, I was wondering if I could seek unanimous consent of the House to allow my bill to take that spot on the priority list.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Maheu): The House has heard the request. Do we have unanimous consent?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

An hon. member: No.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Maheu): We do not have unanimous consent.

INCOME TAX ACT

Mrs. Beryl Gaffney (Nepean) moved:

That, in the opinion of this House, the government should amend the Income Tax Act so that child support payments are no longer considered taxable income for their recipients.
