

Hallville

carnival 1985

These children took part in the Hallville carnival's costume judging contest. The winners were Dean Kerr (the pirate), Rhonda Blaine (nurse) and Amanda Walker (the clown). The contest was part of a morning and afternoon of events for kids.

The cross-cut saw competition was one of many events on Saturday as Hallville residents enjoyed the sunny weather with their annual winter carnival.

HALLVILLE — An estimated crowd of 300 people turned out Saturday for the annual Hallville winter carnival held at the village's skating rink. Twelve-year-old Joy Roach of Hallville was crowned as the carnival queen and Leslie Peterson, 8, was chosen as the carnival princess.

Winchester Press Jan 16, 1985

Hallville carnival 1986

Jim Perkins of CKBY Radio was master of ceremonies and got things under way shortly after 1pm. A children's costume contest started things off and judges had more than a dozen strange looking characters to deal with before winners could be announced.

Zachary Walker was the funniest participant in his clown costume, while most original honors went to Tyler Hoy in a frog outfit. Jason Thompson sported an elephant suit which was judged the best costume overall.

About a dozen girls entered both the Snow Queen and Princess competitions. After answering a question for the judges Teresa Sherrer was crowned Snow Queen and Stacey Kerr will carry the Snow Princess crown for the next year.

Kemptville Advance Jan 16/86

Jim Heatherington, far right, makes his move toward the men's boot race title; the sleigh were packed throughout the afternoon; M...

Winchester Press Jan