

- WITENAGEMOTE—proceedings at, C. F., i. 1; compulsory payment of tithes enacted by, L. C., i. 34; illustration of the Chancellor sitting in the, 38; lawyers who had seats in, 40.
- WITHINS—Judge, unbecoming conduct of, L. C., iv. 334.
- WITHPOLE—Sir E., aids the escape of Lady Hatton and her daughter, C. F., i. 305-6.
- WOGAN—Sir W., Chief Justice of Chester, L. C., v. 10.
- WOLCOT'S—Dr., Case, decision of Lord Eldon in, L. C., ix. 423.
- WOLSEY—Cardinal, parentage, L. C., i. 411; education, 412-13; a country parson set in the stocks, 414; revenge when Chancellor, Ib.; chaplain to Archbishop of Canterbury, 415; to Henry VII., Ib.; ambassador to the Emperor, 417-18; Dean of Lincoln, 419; influence of, over Henry VIII., Ib.; almoner, 420; grants and preferments, 422; Commissary-General to the army, Ib.; Bishop of Tournay and Lincoln, Archbishop of York, 423; Cardinal and Legate à latere, 424; Chancellor, Ib.; homage to, by foreign powers, 426; his splendid mode of living, 428; patronizes Fitz James, Chief Justice, C. F., i. 164; jests against, L. C., i. 431-2; conduct as a judge, 433; originates Money Bill in Lords, 434; causes death of Buckingham, 435; twice disappointed of the popedom, 437-8; love for education, 438; causes publication of debates in House of Commons, 440; attempt to levy a tax without authority of Parliament, 442; embassy to France, 444; courage and skill in diplomacy, 445; ratification of treaty, 447; splendid entertainment to French at Hampton Court, 448; dissuades King's marriage with Anne Boleyn, 449; labors for the divorce, Ib.; obtains conditional license from the Pope, 451; Cardinal Campeggio arrives in England, Ib.; near prospect of Wolsey being elected Pope, 452; hearing of the divorce suit between Wolsey and Campeggio, 453; King's anger at the delay, 454; divorce suit carried before the Pope, Ib.; Wolsey neglected, 456; last interview with Henry, Ib.; returns to London, 457; last appearance in the Court of Chancery, Ib.; refuses to deliver