

NORTH ROSEDALE SPECIAL—Splendid corner lot, 110 x 100. Ideal site for residence. Suitable for doctor. Price $25,000 per foot. If sold now.

TANNER & GATES, Realty Brokers, 25-28 Adelaide West, Main 3893.

PROBS—Strong northwesterly winds and colder, with local snowfalls or flurries.

Dominion Revenue for Nine Months Shows Three Million Dollar Increase

FEDERAL REVENUE STILL SHOWS INCREASE

Despite Falling Off in December, Due to Shrinkage in Customs, Gain for Nine Months is Three Millions—Expenditure Increase Largely Due to Railway Subsidies.

(Special to The Toronto World). OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—The national debt of Canada now stands at $203,552,194, an increase of about half a million during December, according to the financial statement issued today. The funded debt payable in Canada is $303,460, and in London, $287,541,621.

"AIR SPLINT" FOR LUNGS TO CURE TUBERCULOSIS

Novel Method is Being Investigated by Health Authorities at Washington. WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press)—A new method of treating tuberculosis is being investigated by the public health service through experiments at Fort Stanton, N.M., and officials of the service tonight said they were inclined to be hopeful of important results.

FIRE AT NAPANEE DESTROYED TWO BUILDINGS

Opera House and Mack Hotel Were Burned at Midnight, Causing a Loss of Fifteen Thousand Dollars When Flames Spread From the Hotel.

NAPANEE, Saturday, Jan. 10.—Fire, which broke out in the Mack House last night about 4 o'clock, destroyed the hotel, a three-story brick structure and the opera house, a two-story brick structure adjoining. For a time it was feared that a large section of the business quarter might be destroyed, but the efforts of the firemen succeeded in confining the flames to the two buildings, and at an early hour the flames were extinguished. The loss will not exceed $15,000. The origin of the fire is not known.

ACCUSE C.N.R. OF BREAKING PLEDGE

Thorold Citizens Tell Minister of Railways That Railroad Yielded to St. Catharines' Wiles.

(Special to The Toronto World). OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—An influential and eloquent deputation from the Town of Thorold protested today before Hon. Frank Cochrane against the recent decision of the Canadian Northern to run its Hamilton-to-Buffalo trunk line thru St. Catharines instead of thru Thorold. The minister reserved judgment.

WILL TRY KRAFCHENKO FOR BAKER'S MURDER

Alleged Bandit Will Probably Be Given Trial at Winnipeg. WINNIPEG, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press)—John Krafschenko, charged with the murder of H. M. Arnold, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Plum Couleau, and with the robbery of the bank on Dec. 3, was today committed for trial at the spring assizes. The case is set for trial at Morden, but it is probable that a change of venue will be asked for to Winnipeg. A watch found in the automobile in which Krafschenko is alleged to have escaped from Plum Couleau was identified today as one that the accused had pawned some time ago in a Winnipeg loan office and later redeemed. The police have not yet secured a clue to the murder of Axel Helbo, who was shot down on the steps of his boarding house last Thursday morning.

STRIKERS TRIED TO DYNAMITE TWO TRAINS

Anarchy Let Loose in South Africa by Railway Strike and Reign of Terror is Feared—Many Lives Imperiled by Attempts to Destroy Passenger Coaches.

PREMIER STILL BATTLING HARD

Sir James Was Restless During Day, But Was Resting Comfortably Last Night.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—No material change took place today in the condition of Sir James Whitney, the premier of Ontario, who is lying ill with heart trouble at the Manhattan hotel. The bulletin issued late tonight read as follows:

LOYALTY TO RAILWAYS SHOWN BY CAPE MEN

Attempt to Spread Revolt May, However, Succeed—Five Natives Held. CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

NOT FORCED TO ACCEPT FLAG STATION FREIGHT

Railway Commission Decides One Point in Favor of Railroads. Ottawa, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—Railway companies are justified in refusing to accept shipments of freight whether in car lots or less than car lots at flag stations, according to a judgment just issued by the railway commission.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

"BROADWAY JONES" NEXT WEEK.

George M. Cohan, with his own company, which includes his father, Jerry Cohan, and his mother, Helen F. Cohan, all great favorites here, will be at the Princess Theatre next week in one of New York's biggest successes, "Broadway Jones." It is said there is a laugh a minute in the play.

STEAMER RAN AGROUND BUT SOON WAS FLOATED

American Liner Philadelphia Was Carried Out of Her Course by Strong Tide. PLYMOUTH, Jan. 10.—The American liner steamer Philadelphia, carried out of her course by the ebb tide during a dense fog, ran aground last night at a point between Ram Head and Penlee Point, about four miles outside Plymouth harbor. The steamer floated off undamaged at 10.30 and arrived here at 12.50 a.m. today and landed her passengers and proceeded for Cherbourg. The Philadelphia left New York last Friday bound for Southampton.

STRIKERS TRIED TO DYNAMITE TWO TRAINS

Anarchy Let Loose in South Africa by Railway Strike and Reign of Terror is Feared—Many Lives Imperiled by Attempts to Destroy Passenger Coaches.

PREMIER STILL BATTLING HARD

Sir James Was Restless During Day, But Was Resting Comfortably Last Night.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—No material change took place today in the condition of Sir James Whitney, the premier of Ontario, who is lying ill with heart trouble at the Manhattan hotel. The bulletin issued late tonight read as follows:

LOYALTY TO RAILWAYS SHOWN BY CAPE MEN

Attempt to Spread Revolt May, However, Succeed—Five Natives Held. CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

NOT FORCED TO ACCEPT FLAG STATION FREIGHT

Railway Commission Decides One Point in Favor of Railroads. Ottawa, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—Railway companies are justified in refusing to accept shipments of freight whether in car lots or less than car lots at flag stations, according to a judgment just issued by the railway commission.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

BANKS CENSURED FOR ATTITUDE TO FARMERS

Grain Growers of Manitoba Will Ask Government to Give Financial Aid—Request Made That Anti-Combines Law Be Enforced in Consumers' Interest.

PREMIER STILL BATTLING HARD

Sir James Was Restless During Day, But Was Resting Comfortably Last Night.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—No material change took place today in the condition of Sir James Whitney, the premier of Ontario, who is lying ill with heart trouble at the Manhattan hotel. The bulletin issued late tonight read as follows:

LOYALTY TO RAILWAYS SHOWN BY CAPE MEN

Attempt to Spread Revolt May, However, Succeed—Five Natives Held. CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

NOT FORCED TO ACCEPT FLAG STATION FREIGHT

Railway Commission Decides One Point in Favor of Railroads. Ottawa, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—Railway companies are justified in refusing to accept shipments of freight whether in car lots or less than car lots at flag stations, according to a judgment just issued by the railway commission.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

BURGLAR IS HELD ON A DOZEN CHARGES

Wm. J. Brooke Had Five Hundred Dollars' Worth of Stolen Goods in His Room. Dozens of Skeleton Keys, a Revolver, Jimmy and Burglar's Tools in His Possession.

CHOKED INFANT THRU AVERSION

Coroner Cotton's Jury Finds That Mangled Baby Was Strangled by Mrs. Konikoff.

"We find that Baby McFaul came to his death at the hands of Mrs. Konikoff, at 58 Beverley street, on Jan. 5, from strangulation."

WATER CONDUIT BREAK

Judgment and Skill of Engineer's Department Only Issue Involved. MONTREAL, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—There will be no judicial investigation into the circumstances leading up to the break in the water conduit on Christmas day. The statement is made upon the authority of Controller Godfrey, who intimated tonight that the inquiry will be simply an administrative one, that the reports of the engineers already employed, both inside and an outside capacity, will be relied upon by the controllers to establish their decisions, and no more experts will be called in.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

BURGLAR IS HELD ON A DOZEN CHARGES

Wm. J. Brooke Had Five Hundred Dollars' Worth of Stolen Goods in His Room. Dozens of Skeleton Keys, a Revolver, Jimmy and Burglar's Tools in His Possession.

CHOKED INFANT THRU AVERSION

Coroner Cotton's Jury Finds That Mangled Baby Was Strangled by Mrs. Konikoff.

"We find that Baby McFaul came to his death at the hands of Mrs. Konikoff, at 58 Beverley street, on Jan. 5, from strangulation."

WATER CONDUIT BREAK

Judgment and Skill of Engineer's Department Only Issue Involved. MONTREAL, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—There will be no judicial investigation into the circumstances leading up to the break in the water conduit on Christmas day. The statement is made upon the authority of Controller Godfrey, who intimated tonight that the inquiry will be simply an administrative one, that the reports of the engineers already employed, both inside and an outside capacity, will be relied upon by the controllers to establish their decisions, and no more experts will be called in.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of the operating staff of the Durban branch of the Natal Railway to join the strike. It was the refusal of the Cape railway employees to obey the Johannesburg trades federation which was the main cause for the ultimate collapse of the miners' strike in July. It is hoped that a similar result will follow in the present instance, but delegates from the federation who are coming here and others who are going to Durban will do their utmost to spread disaffection.

OUR MILITARY JUMBO

By evening, however, Sir James quieted down, and when Dr. Pyne left him, shortly before 10 o'clock, he was resting comfortably and it seemed assured that he would have another good night's rest. The manner in which he obtained his night's rest, and the facility with which he takes his nourishment are among the most encouraging factors in his condition.

MINERS ARE BITTER

Mr. Mason, leader of the Trades Federation, addressing a gathering of strikers here today, declared that the entire railway service would be stopped tomorrow, but that it was not intended to call out the miners. The miners, he said, were burning for revenge for the bloodshed of last July.

ATTEMPT TO SPREAD REVOLT MAY, HOWEVER, SUCCEED—FIVE NATIVES HELD.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—(Can. Press).—An encouraging feature of the railway strike situation is the continued loyalty of the Cape railway men and the refusal of