Brave Resistance of Russian Town Thwarts Plans of Enemy

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has personally taken command of the German army attack-ing Kovno, and, according to the latest German official report, has made fur-ther progress in the fighting against the Russians in that region.

The selection of Germany's national hero for the duty of capturing the fortress of Kovno, which stands between the Germans and Vilna and the Warsaw-Petrograd railway, is an indication of the importance the German general staff attaches to the operation.

The news that the civilians had commenced to evacuate Kovno as well as Vilna led to the belief in many quarters that the Russians either had decided to give them up or had no hope of holding them. Now, however, they are fighting hard to retain both cities and in the latest official report from Petrograd it is announced that the Russians have repulsed the German attacks, except at one point where a desperate artillery engagement is in

WILL ANOTHER BANK MERGER BE SANCTIONED?

Evening Telegram, Aug. 13. Reports have been circulated in Toronto banking circles during the past few weeks that an effort is being made by a leading Montreal bank to absorb an institution well represented with branches in Ontario.

Canadian financial mergers within the past decade have revealed a ten-dency on the part of financiers to centralize the banking and insurance in-terests of the Dominion in Montreal Such centralization can be of no more advantage to the merchants, manufacturers and farmers of this country tha nwould a centralization of the investment funds of the United States n Philadelphia, Boston or New York be to the merchants, manufacturers and farmers of the United States.

"Insurance mergers and bank mergers have been brought about lately with the result that enormous funds have been established in Montreal, and the control of the finances of the Dominion has largely been placed in the hands of a few men in that city," declared a prominent Toronto banker to

The Telegram today. "This should not be allowed to continue. It is not in the best interests of the country. The business community is even now suffering in con-sequence of these mergers. Funds are impossible to obtain, and yet the savings deposits of the banks are show-ing enormous increases. The trouble is that the money is being used in gigan-tic flotations and for the furtherance of the interests of big business, while the small borrower, be his claim ever so legitimate, can not obtain loans save prohibitive rates of interest."

The assets of the Ontario bank question are over $40,000,000 and the savings deposits are over $20,000,000, practically all from Ontario. The bank which is said to contemplate the absorption of this institution has in recent years become one of the largest banks in the Dominion.

Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, who is in the city today, stated that he had heard nothing whatever as to another bank merger.

Hasn't Heard of It. OTTAWA. Aug. 13.—Finance department officials declare that they are without information as to the alleged interference of the department formation on it," T. C. Boville, deputy minister of finance, remarked today.

Field Marshel Von Ackensen Held Up. Mackensen Held Up.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen, who commands the Germans in the soulty bank may not agree to sell the whole or any portion of its assets to another bank until the minister of finance. in

The Hon. W. T. White, minister of A majority of the military critics finance, was in Toronto yesterday, and consider it hardly likely that Grand in an interview with The World stated that the subject of the merger had not been before him either personally or officially in any way whatever. He left for Ottawa last night after a short A Secret Conference. Not so many days ago a rather un-usual thing might have been noticed. An out-of-town bank manager was seen at the corner of King and Yonge streets, struggling with two large suit cases, one in each hand. He disappeared into a tall bank building, went up the elevator, and in a very quiet room opened his suit cases and showed his papers and statements to the special officer of another bank, an officer in charge of the merger depart-ment—a kind of bank undertaker. The conference was as solemn as a funeral and almost as quiet. Admissions had to be made of losses and solaces were offered in behalf of shareholder They would get so much on the dollar in the stock of the bank would take their bank over. All you've got to say to a Toront bank manager these days is: "Neill 'll get you," and he ducks for the cellar

Reached a Climax Some time after the visiting banker disappeared with his suit cases; he was seen no more. But things were very busy after that, and the climax was reached at the board meeting of the Bank of Hamilton when a resolution favoring the merger was passed by the directors. When news of this resolution became known in Toronto or Thursday it is said a protest was forwarded to Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance at Ottawa. He may not have received the telegram; it may not have been sent, and according to the above statement in The Telegram, and since confirmed by The World, he knew nothing of any such deal being under way. The funny thing about these mergers is that the last one to hear about them is the minister of finance, and then the argument is put forward that the situation is so bad, or that the thing has got so far, that it

haps there ought to be a law against officials of a bank talking over gers without first getting a permit from the minister of finance Will Government Consent? A very prominent banker said ves erday that he was sure that the government, under the leadership of the few days ago said that the Russian minister of finance, would not consent forces in the southern sector of the to the deal. That even if the Bank Warsaw salient would disperse in of Hamilton had made a few losses in small units and reunite at a secret the west it would be a very easy matrendezvous. It is probable that it is ter to wipe them out at no great exthis operation that is deceiving the pense to the reserve, and go on and Austrian headquarters, hence this do a bigger and better business than ever. It did one of the best banking businesses in Ontario. It had been well managed for many years, and all it wanted was some fresh blood on the board and a fresh man at the helm, perhaps. He said it might under certain circumstances be a good thing to move head office to Toronto, while He also thought that there were other banks in Ontario that would be only too glad to take over the Bank of those proposed by the Montreal abhe was sure he would cry his eyes out before he would allow his pride in

Hamilton to be questioned: before he would in any way consent to such a

POSTS ARE IRREGULAR

Gaps Are Numerous, Giving Appearance of Having Suffered Considerably

Besides the defective work which it is alleged has been done at the eastern section of the harbor improvement in the neighborhood of Cherry street, it now appears that trouble is brewing in connection with the cribwork at The cribwork, of which there is cribwork than a distance of about 200 yards except at that part west of i where dredging operations are being where dredging operations are being carried on. By walking over the newly made ground at this point it was possible to get a little closer. Even at this section only the tops of the posts could be seen and these appeared above the water at irregular distances. In some places they were in groups of three or four, about three yards apart, and the next post would appear at a distance of twelve or appear at a distance of twelve or fourteen yards.

For Long Distance.

This irregularity appeared all the distance of 3700 feet. As far as could be ascertained the cribs had only been filled with stone and allowed to stay all the winter. From what could be seen it would appear that quite a large portion of the work had been broken up during the winter.

In an interview Charles Powers, the chief engineer of the Canadian Stewart Company, admitted that parts of the Sunnyaide work had been dem the Sunnyside work had been dam aged, but stated that it was no fault of the company, as cribwork has to be given time to settle and they are not allowed to put the protecting cement caps on until given permission by the government inspector. He stated that the breaking away of parts of the cribwork wa sthe result of the storms which occurred during the fall which occurred during the fall.
