

- contraband part of the cargo, 243.
- Owen, Douglas, on the international unlawfulness of trade in contraband, 92.
- Panama Canal, Regulations for use of, by belligerent, 59.
- Papal decrees, articles of contraband under, 105.
- Papers, effect of spoliation of, 241, 250.
- Parcel post, not to be used for transmission of contraband, 59.
- Paris, Declaration of, see Declaration of Paris.
- Penalty, punishment by neutral sovereign, 48, 220; confiscation of contraband goods, 221-4; applies equally to absolute and conditional contraband, 224; British practice of pre-emption, 224-9; rule of Declaration of London, 230; on whom loss usually falls, 231; condemnation of vessel and non-contraband part of cargo under ancient practice, 231-2; practice of seventeenth century, 233; treaty stipulations, 234; opinions of text-writers, 235-7; ultimately confiscation confined as a general rule to the contraband goods, 237; neutral carrier loses freight and has to pay captor's expenses, 238; except in special circumstances, 239; exceptional cases in which vessel and non-contraband part of cargo liable to condemnation, 239-48; rules of Declaration of London, 249-51; capture on return voyage, 251-5.
- Perils on the responsibility of the neutral state, 76; on conditional contraband, 129, 130, 164; on the doctrine of continuous voyage, 157-8, 163; on condemnation of vessel and non-contraband part of cargo, 244.
- Phillimore on the responsibility of the neutral state, 74, 75.
- Pistoye and Duverdy on the responsibility of the neutral state, 74.
- Poland, Elizabeth's dispute with, as to her interference with neutral trade, 39.
- Postal correspondence, immunity of, 59, 176, 202.
- Pre-emption of foodstuffs by Elizabeth, 224; general practice of pre-emption in the seventeenth century, 224; British practice, 225-6; treaty stipulations, 226-7; opposition of continental jurists, 228; rule adopted by Institute of International Law, 229; provisions of the Declaration of London, 230.
- Privateering, 192.
- Prize courts, origin and establishment of, 215; nature of law administered by, 215; are strictly national courts, 216; proposed International Prize Court, 16, 216; suggested court for trial of neutral American claims in war of 1914-15, 219.
- Prize court rules, 1914, 217, 219.
- Proclamations, authority of belligerent, 40-1.
- Proclamations of neutrality, 63, 79-80.
- Provisions as contraband, position in war of 1914-15, 98, 186-9; the German attitude, 99; position under Elizabeth, 106; under treaty of Southampton, 1625, 108; doctrine of Bynkershoek and Vattel, 115; the Jonge Margaretha, 118-19; British dispute with Denmark and the United States, 121-2; pre-emption of, 224, 226.
- Prussia, treaties of, with the United States for the abolition of contraband, 101-2, 227; dispute with Great Britain over the Silesian loan, 117; volunteer navy of, 192.
- Pufendorf on effect of reprisals upon neutrals, 4; on the responsibility of the neutral state, 68; on the search of convoyed vessels, 195.
- Raw materials as contraband, 113, 114, 181.
- Relative contraband, 126.