

CONTENTS

xiii

	PAGE
Payer's sledge journeys. — Payer's farthest 82° 5' north latitude. — Cape Fligely. — Abandonment of the Tegetthoff . — Retreat of officers and crew. — Picked up by Russian fishermen. — Home	286

CHAPTER XVI

Baron A. E. von Nordenskjöld. — First voyage, 1858. — Accom- panies succeeding Swedish expeditions. — Spitzbergen. — Voy- age of Sofia . — 1868. — Nordenskjöld's journey to Greenland. — Voyage of the Polhem . — Attempt to reach the Pole by reindeer sledge. — Unexpected discouragements and disasters. — Voyage of the Proven . — 1875. — The Kara Sea. — Journey repeated the following year. — In the Ymer . — Voyage of the Vega .	298
--	-----

CHAPTER XVII

British expedition of 1875. The Alert and Discovery . — Captain George S. Nares, F. R. S., Albert H. Markham, F. R. G. S. — Two voyages of the Pandora , 1875-1876. Schwatka's search for the Franklin records, 1878-1879	310
---	-----

CHAPTER XVIII

The Jeannette expedition, 1879-1881. In command of Captain George W. De Long. — Leaves San Francisco. — Touches at Oumalaska, August 2. — Reaches Lawrence Bay, East Siberia, August 15. — Last seen by whale bark Sea Breeze near Herald Island, Septem- ber 2. — The Jeannette beset in ice-pack September 5, never again released. — Daily routine of officers and crew. — Ship springs a leak. — A frozen summer. — Sight of new land. — A second winter in the pack. — The Jeannette crushed. — Aban- donment. — The retreat. — The fate of the three boats. — Death of De Long's party. — Melville's search	345
--	-----

CHAPTER XIX

International circumpolar stations. — Failure of Dutch expedition. — Greely expedition reaches Lady Franklin Bay. — Life at Fort Conger. — Sledge journey of Brainard and Lockwood. — Farthest north. — Greely's journey to interior of Grinnell Land. — Lake Hazen. — Failure of relief ship Neptune to reach Conger in 1882.
---	--