

—and after all our inconveniences and troubles to be once more in the Old Country.

At 11.30 we started for Euston, and arrived there at 4.30. Here my mother and father met us, and right glad we all were to see them, and to be heartily welcomed home.

