

wishes to be placed on the active or honorary list. The commanding officer shall then announce the names of the candidate to the Corps at its next meeting for drill, and at the following meeting for drill a ballot shall be taken, when one "Black Ball" in five shall reject the applicant.

5. Any active member may retire upon the honorary list; or any member, active or honorary, may resign upon giving two months' notice of his intention, and by paying up all arrears that may be due.

6. An annual general meeting shall be held on the first Saturday in November, but should that day be a public holiday, the meeting shall be held on the Saturday following, for the purpose of electing a Treasurer, and members of the General and Judicial Committees, for receiving a statement of the receipts and expenditure of the year, for adding to or amending the "Regulations," and for transacting any other business connected with the interests of the Corps.

8. The commanding officer may summon a special general meeting, by publicly announcing the same, at any regular meeting for drill, and he shall summon such special general meeting upon a requisition to that effect signed by not less than twenty-five members. But no rule shall be added or amended at any such meeting, unless the alteration proposed has been publicly announced at a meeting for drill, at least ten days before the meeting when it is to be taken into consideration.
