GILMORE'S....

Great Band

Coming.

It is a long time since the famous old GILMORE'S BAND has played here. It is coming again though, on TUESDAY, NOV. 19th, 60 strong, directed by the distinguished Victor Herbert, and with it an equally famous prima donna, Miss Ida Klein, at one time of the Metropolitan (Ger.) Opera, New York.

But the old organization has been vastly changed since Victor Herbert became director, and for the better. It is no longer a mere "brass band" it is on a far different footing now. The time for jim cracks in music, of respectable order has gone by. No firecrackers in a barrel, or anvils, or cannon touched off in the wrong measure now. The Gilmore concerts are of another sort under the new and better regime. They are "grand" concerts, pure and simple—brilliant, artistic, and finished. Victor Herbert began, developed, and flourished in the atmosphere of the great orchestras of Europe, and continued in the great orchestras of America, and naturally he has applied the best orchestral methods to Gilmore's, and with splendid results. We shall see on Nov. 19th.

THE PROGRAMME

The primary idea of this Programme is, of course, to enlighten the audience as to the personnel of the artists taking part in the performances, incidentally to serve as a guide to the plot of the piece, and generally to give such information as will tend to the enjoyment of the auditor.

Reading matter of a miscellaneous nature, is, however, liberally supplied, that may be perused with interest and advantage. Quips and Quirks give zest to the solid matter, as sauces do to meats, but there is a fund of information in the advertisements that may be seriously considered with profit.

The publishers are prepared to attend to all business in the way of general and special advertising.

Respectfully,

BELTON & ROOTE,
