

lax notions what the Church is. Since Mr. King's removal, a Baptist Preacher took up his abode in the Township, and laboured an whole winter most industriously to draw away the Congregation, and in some instances with success: but few however have submitted to be rebaptized—the rest, by God's blessing, he hopes may yet be recovered. In Falmouth he finds but few families who adhere to the Church. He derives most satisfaction from Newport. Although the Baptists are numerous there, yet the Congregation is not inconsiderable. The Church, which was neglected during ten or twelve years, has been lately repaired, and now only wants painting on the outside and pews within, which will soon be accomplished. In the last six months, he has baptized 1 Adult and 18 Infants.

The Rev. Mr. Viets, Missionary at Digby, expresses his thanks to the Society for their frequent supplies of the best Books, which counteract the effect of infidel and enthusiastic publications that are industriously obtruded upon his people. He speaks well of both the Society's Schools in his Mission. His year's Notitia stands thus: Baptisms 40 white Infants and 5 Adults—8 black Infants and 1 Adult; Marriages 10 white couple and 3 black; Burials 22. Communicants 29 whites and 8 blacks.
