

Books by Alice Hegan Rice

MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH

"A sure cure for the blues, and a gay challenge to pessimists in general."—Chicago Herald.

Price $1.00

LOVEY MARY

"For fun and pathos, for crisp wit and serene philosophy, and for the charm that holds the reader spellbound, 'Lovey Mary' is as notable as 'Mrs. Wiggs.'"—The Christian Intelligencer.

Price $1.00

MR. OPP

"He is a figure that might hang without insidious comparison in George Eliot's own immortal character portrait gallery."—New York Sun.

Price $1.00

A ROMANCE OF BILLY-GOAT HILL

"The love story has the fragrance of a wild rose, and every character in the book is worth knowing."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Price $1.25 net, postage 10 cents

SANDY

Sandy is a lovable Irish waif, and his story overflows with sunshine and humor.

Price $1.00

CAPTAIN JUNE

A happy story of a dear little American lad who has all kinds of interesting and unusual experiences in Japan.

Price $1.00

At all booksellers. Published by

THE CENTURY CO.