Monday Evening, May 15. mining exchanges to-day in so almost devoid of feature, the trading being of smaller volume, and the price changes so narrow in the majority of instances as to call for no comment.

About the only thing that could be said of the market as a whole was that from the opening of business there was no trace of the vigorous demand which characterized the exchanges most of last week. After a few triffling advances due to short covering early in the day, a sagging tendency developed and this prevailed until the close.

In the Porcupine list the higher priced issues were naturally most influenced by the selling movement, Hollinger in particular scenario expectation.

"ALL RED" SCHEME REVIVED?

Report is Not Credited by Local C. P. R. Officials.

A report appeared in an evening paper yesterday that the Canadian Northern Railway was to revive the all-red route scheme, that the federal government would shortly announce a subsidy for carrying mails from Liverpool to Hongkong, and that Sir William Mackenzie, now in England, had formed- a syndicate of capitalists to stand behind the project. The plan, it was stated, involved the acquirement of the Intercolonial and equipment of the At-lantic route with vessels of the Lusitania type. .

Enquiry at the Canadian Northern offices elicited no information yesterday. In fact, the fancy is said to have originated in Montreal, and little credence is given to it in Toronto.

MORE INFORMATION

What we have told you of ELDORADO PORCUPINE MINES, LIM-ITED, can be verified to the letter.

Every statement made has our absolute endorsation, and further particulars of doings on the company's properties will be given out in bare facts. ELDORADO is too good a proposition to need any fictitious coloring. A gang of men has been engaged to start work on ELDORADO and development work will in all probability start next Monday under charge of Harry Bush, M.E., an engineer of experience.

ELDORADO'S 120 acres will be thoroly proved up, and unless expert mining knowledge is at fault, ELDORADO shareholders will be proud of their holdings within a few months.

A business directorate, the low capitalization of $500,000 and the ELDORADO shares selling at 10 cents, embraces material of opportunity for an investment such as we have seldom if ever seen presented during our 16 years in this business. Orders for ELDORADO or other shares have our personal attention and care.

CAPITALIZATION: $1,000,000. Recent reports from our Porcupine office are very optimistic on Rea. At the moment they have the deepest shaft in the camp, being down 210 feet. The fact that the controlling interest is held by The Consolidated Goldfields of South Africa and that the Bewick Moreing Company are consulting engineers, lends an air of solidity to this company. In our opinion "REA" shares are intrinsically worth much more than the present market price, and should be selling on a par with Hollinger. We have no hesitation in strongly recommending the purchase of this stock.
