HAMILTON NEWS.

CLAIMS PRESSED AT A LIVELY SESSION OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE LAST NIGHT.

Hamilton, Aug. 22.—At tonight's meeting of the Finance Committee a deputation present pressed the claim of the Art School for the usual grant. Mr. Marshall, one of the members of the old board which was turned down, was present and opposed the application strongly, and a war of words followed. Mr. Marshall was very rough on Principal Ireland. Mr. Marshall was charged by Directors Dixon and Pearson with being head of the school in such shape it was impossible for the auditors to straighten out the accounts. The matter was laid over.

ISOLATION HOSPITAL REQUIRED

A sub-committee of the Board of Health was present, and asked that an isolation hospital be established. A grant of $200 was made to the committee by the Board of Health, Commissioner Hall and Ald. Burkholder were appointed delegates to the Municipal Convention, which will be held on Friday, August 24th, at the Hotel Windsor. A Milton coroner telephoned to J. M. Lottridge, of the Limestone Fishing Club this evening, advising him that the caretaker of the club's preserve was found dead in his bed at 11 o'clock last night. A coroner's inquest will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. The coroner is Mr. Geo. Ennis, plant manufacturer, got on

SIR GEORGE BURTON PASSES AWAY

HAD REACHED 83RD YEAR

Sir George Burton, former Chief Justice of Ontario, died suddenly yesterday morning at his home on West Wellington street.

Sir George Burton, former Chief Justice of Ontario, died suddenly yesterday morning at his home on West Wellington street. He was in his 83rd year, and had been in poor health for some time past by reason of his advanced age, no immediate thoughts of death were entertained by the deceased's family or the physician, Dr. I. H. Cameron. The direct cause of death was heart failure. Sir George leaves a widow, two sons and four daughters. The sons are Messrs W. F. and George Burton, both barristers, the former in Hamilton, and the daughters are Miss Burton, Mrs. Malcolm Macpherson of Wellington, New Zealand; Mrs. C. L. Ferguson of Toronto, and Mrs. Bain, wife of J. H. Bain, M.P. for Cumberland.

BYLAW GOES TO SECOND READING.

The Council went into Committee of the Whole and gave the bylaw expropriating the lands a second reading.

Clause 1 refers to the indemnity the company has to guarantee the town, as the law is responsible for the expropriation. Clause 2 refers to the lands to be expropriated. Clause 3 states that if the owner of the property demands, the dispute shall be referred to the Municipal Arbitration Act and the Municipal Act. Clause 4 instructs the Clerk to give notice of the new By-law, which is in the form of a resolution of the Council. Clause 5 gives the corporation power to acquire the lands in question. Clause 6 says the Mayor shall take the security of the Corporation.

ROUGH ATTACK POLICE MAN

Constable Morris was roughly handled by a Gang of Rowdies on Wednesday Night.

WAS GOING TO THE P.A.A. BANQUET.

Ruffian Jostled Him and Was Arrested, But the Crowd Came to the Rescue.

Police Constable Morris of No. 1 Division did not get to the Police Amateur Club dinner on Wednesday night at the Grand Hotel, and this is the reason why: He was on his way to the hotel from his home, and while passing the corner of Queen and Trefann streets he was attacked by a gang of about a dozen rowdies, who have infested the district for some weeks past, and defied the police. One of the gang jostled Morris, who was in the clothes, and the officer grabbed him to place him under arrest on a charge of being disorderly. His friends then intervened, and, although Morris warned them that he was a peace officer, they continued to attempt to rescue the policeman, and finally succeeded. Morris, who was in a state of great excitement, released his hold on his man but he sank down in the process of exhaustion. Pedestrians passing by at the time, who were carried him to his home. His face was badly scratched, and he was unable to get up. He was carried to the police station, where he was treated for his injuries. He is now recovering from his wounds.

THE POLICE CRITICIZED.

Trades and Labor Council Censure Athletes for Non-Unionism.

The Police Amateur Athletic Association were severely criticized at a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council held last night in Richmond Hall. It was stated in a report that the Association had put the union label on their printing press, and that the Association had employed a non-union hand. It was stated that the Association had also employed a non-union hand to print the athletic program.
