FIFTY YEARS OF FAITHFUL SERVICE Rev. Dr. MacLaren Presented With Casket of Silverware and Address.

The ceremonies attendant upon the Mtieth anniversary of the ordination of Rev. Dr. MacLaren of Knox College were begun in the Bloor-street Presbyterian Church last evening. The ladies of the congregation provided a bountiful supper, which was partaken of in the basement of the church, an informal program of music and short speeches

Dr. MacLaren was presented with four illuminated addresses, the first from his first charge, the Amberstburg Presbyterian Church, Rev. R. C. Tibb, clerk of the Toronto Presbytery, réad the congratulations of that body; Rev. J. McD. Duncan, president of the Knox Alumni Association, president of the Knox Alumni Association, presented the regards of the men who had learned their theology at the professor's feet, and Prof. Ballantyne, on behalf of the Senate and College Board, read an address dwelling on their cordial relations with and high appreciation of their fellow-

Rev. Dr. Milligan then spoke on behalf of the Toronto Presbytery and the Board of Foreign Missions, and His Honor the Lleutenant-Governor, a chairman of the Board of Knox College Both gentlemen had enjoyed intimate relationship with Dr. MacLaren and spoke of his fidelity, frankness, reasonableness and sincerity.

Prof. Wallace of Victoria University spoke on behalf of sister churches and colleges and paid a great tribute to the Presbyterian Church for its history and its progress. He assured Dr. MacLaren of the respect and love of the Meth-

The most affecting scene was the presentation by John L. Blakey, on behalf of the congregation, of a beautiful casket of silverware. Mr. Blakey spoke of Dr. MacLaren's services, as well as those of Mrs. MacLaren, to their church in many capacities, he having been one of its founders and being still active as an elder at the present time. Prof. MacLaren's reply was given in a husky tone, as the presentation was evident an entire surprise. He modestly went over his connection with the church and the college and hoped he had earned a tithe of the good things that he had heard during the evening. His first feel-ing was one of humiliation that he had done so little in fifty years of services. done so little in fifty years of service, but he also felt a profound thanksgiving that he had been of some service. In his thirty years in Knox, he had seen 525 students graduate, and there had been an increase in each decade The meeting closed with a hymn of

LARGE FLOWERING, BRILLIANT COLORS

Strictly First Size Bulbs.

No Flower Garden is Complete Without a Bed of Gladiolus.

There is nothing to compare with the Gladiolus as a garden flower, triving as they do under the most adverse conditions, and giving out a untiful supply of handsome blooms, which cannot be surpassed for their illiancy and varied colors. We are large growers of these bulbs and upply only varieties and mixtures that we know are the best to be objined and such as will give complete satisfaction.

OUR GENERAL MIXTURES.

Our mixed Gladiolus are very fine indeed, being choice varieties only. All old and common ones have been discarded, and customers can depend on having a large and magnificent variety of colors.

The Dahlia is the grandest autumn flower we have. There is nothing equal it in September or October, when everything else is faded or ding, and it surrenders only to frost. Tubers should be planted when e season becomes warm, covering the neck about 3 inches.

C.P.R. INDIAN CARNIVAL. Canadian Enterprise Responsible for Unique Chicago Display.

By the early part of September there will be heading for Chicago a fleet of Indian canoes. They will coast down the west shore of Lake Michigan and land near the mouth of the Chicago River, just as their ancestors did a hundred years ago.

From a half-dozen different tribes, hunters and traders will come to Chicago and seek Fort Dearborn for supplies. The fort is to be reconstructed, and the Indians are to be received as their forefathers were when the fort their foretathers were when the fort was a trading post.

The tribes represented will be the Ojibways, Iroquois, Pottawattomies, Algonquins, Ottawas and Menominees. The plan to have this Indian display was proposed for the celebration of the Chicago Centennial this fall, by L. O Armstrong of the Canadian Pacific. Armstrong of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

He proposes to bring 400 Indians, whose ancestors traded at Fort Dearborn a hundred years ago, back to the site of the old fort, and have them re-enact the scenes of the older days, as far as possible. It is planned to have them encamped on the lake front, if possible, and to give daily exhibitions. tions.

Upon their arrival in their bark canoes, they will pitch camp and trade for supplies with the post trader at Fort Dearborn. They will cook their meals at open campfires, and show exactly how the trading Indians used to live about the fort.

to live about the fort.

As a part of the formal entertainments which will be given each day, the Indians will show their various dances on elevated platforms. There will be canoe races, swimming races, and tilting matches. At the last game, the Indians are the world's champions and the champion of the Indians at this picturesque water tournament, Shawanoe, will be among the challengers.

It is expected that the flotilla of brightly - colored canoes which will float down the lake will be one of the most picturesque sights which Chicago has had the opportunity to view.

At night the Indians will sing their canoe songs from the lake. The Indians who do not take part in the performance will make all varieties of articles usually offered for sale by the articles usually offered for sale by the tribes. These will include mats, porcupine quillwork, beadwork on bark and skins, canoes, baskets, etc. The many tribal and religious customs of the Indians will be fully illustrated at the village.

the Indians will be fully illustrated at the village.

Many of the Indians have been approached on the subject of making the canoe trip to Chicago, and have expressed themselyes as anxious to have a part in the celebration. The story of the trading post and of the fort is well-known to many of the older Indians, whose fathers were among the hunters and trappers who came to Fort dians, whose fathers were among the hunters and trappers who came to Fort Dearborn for their supplies.

A part of the original Fort Dearborn will be used in the reconstruction. The South Park Commissioners have in storage a large section of the old blockhouse, which stood at 33rd and Statestreets for many years, having been taken there from its original site. Henry E. Weaver saved this part from destruction and presented it to the commissioners.

BANQUET TO LORD DUNDONALD.

Col. Otter, C.B., and the officers of the Toronto Garrison, gave a dinner last night in honor of Lord Dundonald, General Officer Commanding the Canadian Militia, at McConkey's. His Excellency the Governor-General was also a guest. All the city regiments were largely represented among the officers present.

Lord Dundonald, in a short speech, Lord Dundonald, in a short speech, made slight reference to criticisms passed upon him of encouraging militarism in this country. Nothing was further from his intentions, he said. What he desired was to improve the militia of Canada by camp experience and the instruction of the regular force so that proper facilities for instruction would be forthcoming for the use of the volunteer army service.

Both the General's speech and the few brief remarks of Lord Minto were very well received. The dinner proper was over by 10.30 but an enjoyable time was spent in songs and conversation for

The pulpit of Elm-street Methodist Church will be occupied to morrow by a conference delegate, and at 7 p.m. by the pastor. At the latter service an address will be delivered by Miss Sweetman.
