

VISITORS MUST SEE IT

There's a snappy taste of fall in the air already, and it won't be long before the snow flies. There's a good touch of comfort in our prices, and the fur garments we have in our big show-rooms are rich and well-made every way.

These garments were specially prepared for Fall week, and are Exhibition goods in stock and finish. Summer prices for these goods are still in vogue, so that to buy now you not only have a better choice at a low price, but you will have a new style garment of rich finish to meet a sudden change in temperature.

Visitors to the Fair should not overlook our big exhibit in the show-rooms.

LABOR MEN IN PARADE

Tobacco Workers' Union, Musical Protective Association, Stage Employees and Street Railway Men.

In section six walked the Piano and Organ Workers' Council, Piano and Organ Workers Local 39, Piano and Organ Workers Local 41, Wood Carvers, Upholsterers' Union, Journeymen Tailors, Clothing Cutters, Clothing Operators, Clothing Pressers, Furriers' Union and Room Makers.

Section seven was made up of the Federated Council of Building Trades. The painters walked clad in snow-white uniforms, and then came the Federated Council of Building Trades, Painters' Union, Stone Masons, Builders' Laborers, Sheet Metal Workers, Structural Iron Workers, Inside Iron Workers, Ornamental Iron Workers, Stone Cutters, Marble Workers, Plumbers, Steam and Gas Fitters, Brotherhood of Carpenters, Amalgamated Carpenters, Electrical Workers No. 11, Electrical Workers No. 532, Lithographers, Plasterers' Laborers, Concrete Workers, Tile Layers, Bricklayers.

The plumbers had a neat blue uniform, and with their tools in a basket, they marched in a most impressive manner.

Toronto Typographical Union No. 91 had a real live printer's devil with them, who proceeded the printing press, carrying a small, electrically operated printing press, which was used to print a card for the parade.

The boiler-makers and iron ship builders in section eight wore a fine model of a ship, with the boiler-makers' union flag flying from the mast.

The parade was a most impressive one, and the various unions showed their strength and solidarity.

Results: The thousands watched the athletic contests, which in point of interest, exceeded anything that has been held in the island in years. There were 22 events on the program, which proved most interesting to the spectators.

PERSONAL MENTION: Speed's Mills, Sept. 4.—Alto quite ill a few days ago with a severe attack of irritable throat, inflamed tonsils and sore chest. Mr. Wright is around once more, having used Catarrhione, which cures these complaints very quickly. Everyone is talking about the merit of this preparation, which is having a big sale here. Two months' treatment costs $100. At all drug stores.

Baby Show a Howling Success.

The Baby Show was the big event of the Island Park demonstration. There were no fewer than 253 babies examined and passed on by the committee of judges. The show was a most successful one, and the babies were of all ages and colors.

The judges decided the merits of the children on the three points of beauty, health and intelligence. Each baby was given a maximum of 100 points for each attribute. The results showed that the babies were of a high standard of health and intelligence.

Dr. Spence, Ald. Dr. Harrison and ex-Ald. Harvey Hall began the judging about 10 o'clock and continued until 4 o'clock. The judges were assisted by a committee of ladies, who were in charge of the babies.

The prize winners were marked equally high by each of the judges, and there was no question as to their excellence.

Remember to Err in Human.

The judges refer to Charles Kilmins' residence after their labors were concluded and figured out the percentages. As no record was kept of the names of the babies, it was impossible to ascertain the numbers of the prize-winners, but the holders of the lucky numbers are requested to call at the office of the president of the committee, Richard Southwell, 414 East Adelaide-street, where they will obtain orders for their prizes.

The evening features of the day's program were considerably marred by the inclement weather.

PARKS LED THE WAY.

New York, Sept. 7.—The central feature of the celebration in this city was the parade of union labor, which took place this morning. The parade was a most impressive one, and the various unions showed their strength and solidarity.

How About Furs?

You can pay all the expenses of a trip to Toronto buying Furs as we sell them.

Our "King Edward" store is helping us take care of the trade. Never before have we had as many buyers, as well as lookers.

Canada is the greatest fur producing country on earth, and we're among the biggest furriers in the world.

The business has grown because we "play fair" with customers.

Making the store twice as big is part of the plan for doubling our trade.

We've a broad welcome here this week for visitors and sightseers. Our fur showrooms are as attractive a spot as you'll find in town.

RAIN SPOILED THE DAY.

St. Catharines, Sept. 7.—The second annual celebration of the trade and labor organizations of this city was held today. The morning was spent in receiving the visitors. At 1 o'clock the procession moved on from the city square. Fully 1500 men with six bands were in line and presented a neat appearance. They marched to the lacrosse grounds, where a lengthy program had been arranged. Speeches were made by Alderman Carly, Patsy Wilson and Sweet, Dr. Jessop, M.L.A., and E. A. Lancaster, M.P. The Rev. W. H. Harvey presented the prizes for the best appearing unions, the carpenters receiving first, bakers second and the masons and bricklayers third. There was a big list of races, etc., run, but the rain, which lasted all afternoon and evening, practically spoiled the day.

RAIN AT LONDON.

London, Sept. 7.—The heavy rain, which fell since early morning somewhat marred the London Bay celebration. Notwithstanding this, however, a very large turnout of the different unions in uniform, bands and many decorated floats represented the various industries, paraded from the market square, about 1 o'clock to the Victoria Park, where the parade was held. There were sports and amusements were carried out in the afternoon.

RAIN HIT WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, Sept. 7.—Labor Day passed off very quietly in Winnipeg. There was a large parade in the morning thru a drenching rain, which started early and continued throughout the day, causing much disappointment, as elaborate preparations had been made for a big celebration, which of course could not be carried out.

SUNSHINE AT BROCKVILLE.

Brockville, Sept. 7.—The celebration held here today by the labor unions was well attended. The steamer America brought an excursion from Kingston and the steamer Brockville brought another from Gananoque, having the Gananoque Band with them. There was also an excursion from Smith's Falls by the C. P. R. and one from points along the R. & W. Railway. The weather was perfect and everything passed off pleasantly.

SIR WILLIAM OPTIMISTIC.

Port Colborne, Sept. 7.—Labor Day was very quiet here today, and only fully 5000 people assembled in the Lakewood Grove, where speeches, games and dancing formed part of the day's program. Argyle Lodge, No. 10,638, of the American Federation of Labor,
