Manufacturers' Sample Coats for Women—Representing Unusual Value at $12.75--8.30 Special

Swagger Tweed Coats in Pin Checks, Diagonals and Broken Plaids, in the season's fashionable tones, including grey, black and white, brown and bronze green mixtures. These are lined or half-lined and made on Ulster lines as befits the tweed top coat. Some have shoulder yoke, one featuring the "Trench" back, while another is cut in flaring style, its full ripples being confined by a wide belt. Raglan sleeves are noted upon some models, while all have large patch pockets, and collars featuring many novelties. A good range of sizes. These are such good value they constitute a quite exceptional offering, $12.75.

Fine Values in Coats at $15.00

The materials include fine wool velours, broadcloth, beaver cloth, chinchilla, Whitney cloth, cheviot, poplin and tweeds. Truly a fine choice among fabrics! The styles are equally varied with many charming novelties in collars, belts and pockets. The "Trench" coat is one popular model shown with its wide belt and inverted pleat down the back; a coat of velours with large plush buttons has a collar widely pointed on the shoulder; a wide belt with inset pleated sections at front and back distinguishes a handsome velours coat. The styles are so varied that description is impossible; either half or wholly lined. Colors, beetroot, brown, navy, green, grey, as well as the various tweed mixtures. Lengths, 44 to 48 in.
