Our Flag. To the Editor of The Advertiser:

In a few short weeks London will be welcoming thousands of visitors and Canada for the Old Boys' reunion.

The citizens will decorate stores, dwellings, public buildings and pleasure parks with flags and bunting to give our fair city a gala look for a gala occasion.

But what flags will be used? As or by Commissioner of Police Bingham previous occasions, will there be more American flags, large ones, and of bet- NORTHERN NAVIGATION CO ter quality than the Canadian ones? It is true many of the visitors will be Americans-by naturalization-and, out of respect for them, an occasional American flag might be displayed, but let us as Londoners and Canadians use our own flag for our decorations and not that of our American cousins.
